Collector for Western Book Concern.—On motion of the Secretary, Will H. Hiller was appointed to collect accounts for the Western Book Concern.

Transfers.—The Bishop announced the transfer to this Conference of W. Arthur Noble from the Colorado Conference, and of John W. Webb from the New England Southern Conference.

22nd Question.—The 22nd question was taken up, namely, "Who are the Supernumerary Preachers?" The names of S. J. Austin and E. L. Bennett were called, their characters were passed, and they were continued in the supernumerary relation.

G. B. Benedict Made Effective.—The name of G. B. Benedict was called, his character was passed, and on motion of C. V. Arnold, his relation was changed from supernumerary to effective.

Referred to Committee.—On motion of D. C. Barnes, the cases of all supernumerary members of the Conference contemplating a change of relation were referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Binghamton District.—Binghamton District was called, the character of Thomas Harroun, its Presiding Elder, was passed, and he read his report as follows:

BINGHAMTON DISTRICT.

The field of labor to which Bishop Walden assigned me, six years ago this present month, was pleasant both in association and location, having variety of city, town, and country; fertile, beautiful valleys and rugged hills, on, and remote from, public thoroughfares. Here I have been greeted, from time to time, by earnest, loyal, self-denying, cross-bearing ministers and laymen, who always gave me most hearty welcome to their homes and hospitality. These expressions of kindness are dear to me, and must ever retain a place in my memory.

Our business meetings have had their variety and perplexity, but we have had no break. Four times each year, at each appointment, the questions have been asked, Are there any complaints? Any Appeals? Without a single exception the answer has been, Not any.

In the beginning of my work I was both embarrassed and helped by my predecessor, the great Dr. Olin, whose absence we mourn to-day. As a disciplinarian and organizer, love for his church, its discipline and doctrine, we have had no one superior, and few were his equal. His friends thought he loved his church better than himself, saying by his great care and devotion to it:

"For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend,
To her my cares and toils be given,
Till cares and toils shall end."

He left his impress on the Church, and his judgment and decision are often referred to in reference to Church polity.

By the blessing of God, amid such environments, and by the help of a corps of Methodist ministers and laymen, faithful, reliable, ready to respond to every call, and only satisfied in doing their best, jealous for the success and welfare of the Church, evincing a commendable zeal for its prosperity in all departments, the following results have been achieved:

Each pastor and Church would justify a more elaborate report than I am expected to give, did not the details of their work appear elsewhere.

BENEVOLENCES.

These have received special attention and care. If they are not equal to, or in advance of, other years, we think it will not be due to unfaithfulness or inactivity. If there be any criticism adverse, it would be that some pastors may have deferred their collections until too late in the year. Some parts of our work have been and are now seriously embarrassed by the financial condition of the country. A large number of our members are mechanics, employed in shops and factories, who have been reduced in time and wages below the needs of their families; others, deprived entirely of work for months, who ordinarily contribute to the support of the Church, the Church has been compelled to aid. But I think the reports of the pastors will discover the fact that they have appreciated the great emergency, and have striven to meet the demands.

PERIODICALS.

The number is far less that patronize our Church periodicals than it ought to be, yet it is an encouraging fact that the number of patrons is increasing who feel that one essential to a well-informed, intelligent Methodist is to read our own Church papers. Hence the number taken is in advance of any previous year.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Our Sunday Schools are organized as directed by the Discipline, and are doing good work. I know of none that do not use our own Church helps. Several Churches that never enjoyed the advantages of Sunday School books have purchased large libraries.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

There are forty-two chapters in the district. These are vitalizing forces, imparting energy and efficiency to all parts of the Church. We held one general and several local conventions during the year, which proved a means of inspiration and quickening, and by which its members went out infused with new life to form new chapters and do more efficient work. An assembly was held at Carmel Grove in August, where the subjects of Missions, Temperance, Epworth League, Education, Sunday Schools, Veterans, Sabbath, and Bible Study were considered, and was thought by all present to be of special interest and profit. This meeting was followed by two weeks' camp meeting—Carmel and Dimock—which proved a time of great spiritual uplift and quickening of believers, and awakening and conversion of about two hundred souls.

The pastors have been men of one work. Most of them have pleasant homes. The salaries of some afford a good support; others fair; some far too small. We were almost the banner district last year. Only two pastors reported salary not paid, and one of these credited the Church with donation more than three times the amount deficient on salary. We shall be disappointed if there is any preacher on the district who does not report his claim all met.

REVIVALS AND IMPROVEMENT OF CHURCH AND PARSONAGE PROPERTY.

Auburn has reseated and ceiled the Church at a cost of $200; had an excellent revival; conversions at several points on the circuit. Brooklyn has purchased furnishings for the parsonage, and has had a gracious revival. New Milford has finished paying a long standing debt, purchased carpet for parsonage, laid flagging in front of all the property, and has witnessed more than forty conversions. Harford rejoices in the fact that the parsonage is freed from all indebtedness, and has had a number of conversions. Rush has made some improvement on the Church. Union has expended on Church repairs $160, and God has answered their prayers in the conversion of souls. Maine has reduced the parsonage debt $300, and at almost every point on the circuit there have been revivals. Dalton commenced business for itself as a separate charge one year ago; has had a healthy, steady growth; has expended for improvements $275. A new Church is being erected at Fleetville, for which $1200 is already subscribed. Lestershire became a separate charge three years ago. Its development and growth in Church building, in congregation, in Sunday School, has equaled, if not exceeded, the expectation of its most hopeful friends. Every year has witnessed more or less conversions and accessions to the Church. They have expended in improving their property this past year $200. Every department of Church interest at Great Bend has been materially improved. Two-thirds of the members at Susquehanna are employed in car shops. They have been reduced in time and pay more than one-half during the year; yet they have advanced ten per cent. on all the collections, and paid $300 on Church debt, and have added to their membership over 100. Gibson has expended $109, which paid all indebtedness, and made some improvement on parsonage property; also have had a good revival. Chenango Street paid for Sunday School library, Church and parsonage repairs, $866, and have received into the Church 94. At Newton, by the wise and judicious policy and faithful work of the pastor, there have been quite a number of conversions; the church has had steady and healthy growth, and was never more united, stronger, or in better condition than it is at present. Springville is one of our largest circuits, and served by one of our older ministers, and in view of what has been done in Church building and Church improvement, and additions to the membership, the people think they were never better served. Factoryville is one of our most substantial, reliable Churches, looking very carefully after all its financial and spiritual interests, never fails to pay its pastor, and meet all the apportionments each year, and keeps everything tucked up and paid up. Falls purchased a fine parsonage, one of the best on the district, and has paid toward it, for furniture, and for repairs on Church, $900; and has had a blaze of revival during almost the entire fall and winter, which resulted in adding to the Church about 150.

The Sunday School of the Centenary Church has outgrown its present accommodations, and $2000 has already been secured to improve and enlarge the Sunday School room, and has realized over 200 accessions to the Church. At Clinton Street there has been substantial growth in all departments, and improvement on all lines, in congregation, in Sunday School, in social meetings; has doubled its membership, and the almost crushing debt of $1400, which rested on the struggling band, has all been provided for, and one-half paid. Oak Street is another branch of the Tabernacle, and another grand-daughter of old Centenary. They have built a house, have it furnished, and most respectfully invite the Bishop to appoint them a pastor. This makes the seventh Methodist Episcopal Church in Binghamton.

Vestal is a laborious field, and has had for its pastor one of our laborious ministers. He has been abundant in labor. He has been toiling, weeping and praying for a revival. A few weeks recently God answered his prayer, the fire broke out, and at this moment it is blazing, and more than half a hundred has been added to the Church on probation. Montrose has had a prosperous year; has had accessions to the Church, and has plans for improving their property by moving the old parsonage to the rear of the Church lot and building a new house. High Street is one of our most active and enthusiastic Churches. Bro. Bradshaw, the pastor, has completed his full term. These years of most persistent effort and toil have been rewarded in the erection of a new Church and parsonage, and by doubling its membership, and the people regret that the Bishop cannot return him to them another year. Fairdale has been blessed by additions to its membership, and by renovating the lecture room, have made it much pleasanter and more inviting. Nicholson has been blessed with unity, revival, and accessions to the Church, and paid for indebtedness $140. Tabernacle has made needed improvements on the parsonage, and has enjoyed a steady, healthy growth in all departments of Church work. 190 added to the membership. Franklin Forks is rugged soil, but it has been made to yield a gracious harvest during the past winter, by which about 50 have been added to the Church. Kirkwood has witnessed diligent and persistent toil; has paid all its obligations during the year, and has realized an uplift in the awakening and conversion of sinners, who promise help and strength to that weak point. Oakland has had a religious growth, steady and uniform, during the year; scarcely a month when there has not been souls converted and added to the Church. Bro. Eastman has completed a successful pastorate of five years. Through the persistent and untiring labors of the pastor of Hawleyton, there have been revivals at each point, and about 60 have joined on probation. The work done at Lanesboro, East Bridgewater, West

Nicholson, Union Centre and Randolph reflect much credit on the pastors and their helpers.

Regretting mistakes and errors, which have not been few, and that more and better work has not been done, I find some relief in the fact that it is not due to motive or plan. By the blessing of God, I have been permitted to be at every appointment, and have not been absent from the district a single Sabbath of the six years except during the General Conference.

We have built twelve new Churches; repaired as many more; bought one of the Presbyterians; built one new parsonage, bought three; paid for Church and parsonage improvements between seventy and eighty thousand dollars; and more than 3000 have been added to the Church in full membership.

All the years have strengthened my love for and attachment to my Church, its doctrine and discipline, and the men by whose side I have toiled through thick and thin, night and day, with whom I have mourned battles lost, and rejoiced in victories won, anxious that, with them, when

All our toils are ended,
And the conflict all is done,
Hushed are all our sorrows,
And calm is all the strife,
That Peace, in sweetest accents,
Shall proclaim the victory won.

I received the district from Bishop Walden—shall return it to Bishop Hurst.

Effective Elders.—The following Effective Elders were called, their characters were passed, and their reports were given: D. C. Barnes, G. M. Colville, W. J. Hill, J. W. Nicholson, John Bradshaw, H. H. Wilbur, Austin Griffin, P. G. Ruckman, J. R. Angel, W. R. Turner, G. L. Williams, C. H. Newing, J. S. Lewis, G. C. Jacobs, J. A. Faulkner, E. P. Eldridge, P. R. Hawxhurst, Jonas Underwood, J. C. Johnson, G. E. Van Woert, Abraham Schofield, J. H. Weston, Stephen Jay, C. H. Hayes, C. L. Rice, Isaac Jenkins, G. M. Chamberlain.

Chenango District.—Chenango District was called, the character of Henry M. Crydenwise, its Presiding Elder, was passed, and he read the following report:

CHENANGO DISTRICT.

It is a great privilege to be the bearer of good tidings. It is a pleasure to speak honest words of praise and congratulation. Hence there is unspeakable gratification in making this my annual report. A year of unusually mild, pleasant weather, with good roads and all favorable circumstances, great zeal and fidelity on the part of the pastors, above all the favor and blessing of God enable me to report signal prosperity and worthy advance in all departments of our work. With all my soul I thank God and congratulate my brethren of the district for the general success which has crowned the work of the year. If all the districts of Methodism were manned by as live, faithful men as make up the pastors of Chenango District, neither our Missionary committee nor any other of our benevolent boards would sit in sadness over diminished collections or threatening debt. Two years ago the district advanced in its grade among the 488 districts of Methodism from No. 229 to 87. Last year it went up to 49, and the exact figures as gathered from the pastors will show a still further advance this year. With the exception of a slight accident, which laid me aside for five weeks, I have enjoyed excellent health and been able to attend all my quarterly meetings. By preaching Saturday afternoons and evenings; by lunching in my wagon; driving from six to ten miles between services and preaching three times on Sabbath I am able to meet all the charges and give them the full quarterly meeting services each quarter of the year. Possibly I am old foggyish, but born and cradled amid old-fashioned Methodism, being carried in my childhood by my father six miles both Saturday and Sabbath to the quarterly meetings, I believe in and am seeking to perpetuate all the old-time valuable services of this God-honored quarterly gathering. During all our history the quarterly meetings have been the strong connectional tie, holding together in common interest and sympathy the different appointments of the charges or circuits, and I believe that rural Methodism will greatly suffer when this tie is allowed to loosen or is in any way removed.

In doing my work I have traveled more than 4,500 miles; preached 221 times; held more than 100 Quarterly Conferences and Love-feasts and given much time to the Church benevolences and revival work.

The health of the pastors and their families has also been excellent, and, thank God, the work in no way interrupted by sickness or death.

Brother H. G. Blair's first year at Castle Creek has been one of uninterrupted prosperity. Some have been converted. All collections except that for Missions increased one-third; $700 are subscribed and the contract let for the immediate building of a new parsonage.

Last Spring we organized a new charge called Chenango Bridge, made up of Glen Castle, Ogden and Chenango Bridge. The enterprise has been most signally owned and blessed of God. Brother F. D. Walter, a student at Syracuse University, has served the charge with great efficiency and acceptability, showing rare discretion in organizing and managing the work. He has gathered up a membership of 70 and had a glorious revival in which about 50 professed conversion. Church sheds have been built; about $1,000 subscribed, plans perfected, and stone put on the ground for the building of a Church at Chenango Bridge. With the continued blessing of God we look that this shall be a strong charge in the near future.

Levi Jennison has closed his fourth year at Chenango Forks, having the unbounded respect and love of all the people. Every interest of the Church is carefully looked after; congregations and Sunday Schools increasingly large, and the standard of the benevolences fully maintained. Long needed Church sheds have been built at Katelleville at a cost of $180.

This has been another good and prosperous year with Brother Charles Smith at Choconut Center. 75 are reported as converted and 64 enrolled as probationers. Both Church and parsonage at Choconut Center have been repaired. During his three years pastorate he has increased the benevolences more than three fold. Last spring the Quarterly Conference heartily voted to increase his salary $125.

Brother L. D. Palmer, a young man, has served Coventry charge with great fidelity during the year. He had never preached a sermon until he took up the work there. But by rapidly developing and increasing efficiency is proving the genuineness of his call to this holy work. Souls have been converted and the benevolences nearly doubled.

Three years Thomas Eva has served Edmeston charge and his third year has been the best. The benevolences are increased; 20 conversions are reported, and a fine, complete parsonage has been built at a cost of $1,200.

Exeter charge has been efficiently served by A. D. Finch. 23 are enrolled as probationers; minor collections have been advanced, and missions increased more than one-third. He is deservedly popular and the people unanimously desire his return.

The wives of the future pastors of Garrattsville will have occasion to hold Brother A. E. Thurston in grateful remembrance. After begging and carrying water from neighbors ever since there was a parsonage, Brother Thurston has had a well bored at cost $150, giving an exhaustless supply of excellent water just at the door where the parsonage wife mostly presides. In every respect Brother Thurston has had a good year. The Church is earnestly spiritual and 27 have been enrolled as probationers.

Rev. J. M. Correll was transferred to this Conference last spring and stationed at Gilbertsville. His year of work there has fully justified us in securing his transfer.

A goodly number have been converted ; the church is in a most healthy spiritual condition, and all interests have been fully sustained.

Rev. L. B. Weeks has made a truly great record at Greene. Pastor's salary increased $200 ; expended in improvements and paying indebtedness $740 ; benevolent collections are nearly doubled, and 26 are reported as converted. The Church is earnestly spiritual and all departments in a healthy condition.

The faithful zealous labors of M. S. Godshall at Guilford have been abundantly blessed of God in one of the most glorious revivals ever enjoyed by this charge. No evangelist ; no outside aid or influence ; the pastor and people, mightily helped by the Holy Ghost, carried on the work until over 90 were converted and 82 received on probation. To God be glory. Brother Godshall is a model pastor and looks carefully after every interest of the charge.

Under the pastoral care of F. J. Jones, Lisle has also enjoyed great prosperity. He is a pushing, evangelistic, Methodist preacher, and by nearly six months of continuous revival work, cares for and seeks after souls in school-houses and outlying neighborhoods in all regions beyond. The minor collections are nearly doubled ; the church membership has been increased, and there are 55 reported conversions.

The entire pastorate of E. R. D. Briggs at Marathon has been signally blessed of God, and we believe that this charge is in a condition of spirituality and prosperity which it has not know in many years. This year has been one of special victory. A genuine, glorious revival has been enjoyed in which about 40 were converted, and there is a worthy advance in the collections. The Quarterly Conference most earnestly asked his return for the fourth year.

Brother George Pope has had a good year at Old McDonough. At all the appointments the Church is united and prosperous ; the congregations large, and the pastor popular with his people. The old unsightly church at McDonough is being thoroughly repaired and modernized at a probable expenditure of about $1,000.

Amid some special and great discouragements Brother G. F. Ace has done faithful work at Morris. A goodly number have been converted and we believe the Church is being purified and lifted up into higher spirituality.

Old Mt. Upton, under the leadership of E. H. Dupuy has more than maintained her grand and noble record. Missions largely increased ; minor collections more than doubled ; 25 conversions ; the Church united and prosperous. Surly this is a good year's work for both pastor and people.

For three years brother G. H. Prentice has faithfully served the Church at New Berlin and is still in great and general favor with the people. Every collection is advanced and there is no interest of the Church but what receives the pastor's careful attention. A very nice barn and row of sheds have been built at New Berlin, meeting a great need, really ornamental and making a complete Church property. This improvement cost $390, and would have cost much more, only for the work and supervision personally put into it by the pastor.

A fine new bell has been put into the Church at North Fenton, and brother D. W. Sweatland, as always, has done excellent work and is in great favor with all the people.

North Norwich, served by C. M. Olmstead, a student in Syracuse University, is fast developing into a good and promising charge. We believe it has never been to Methodism what it is to day. The benevolences have more than doubled ; the membership of the Church has increased, and souls have been converted.

Rev. E. B. Olmstead has closed four years with the Church at Norwich and never was the Church more prosperous or the pastor more popular than at this time. Congregations large ; Sunday School with largest attendance in its history ; Strong Epworth League ; Junior League recently organized with 75 members ; pastor's salary increased $200 ; all bills paid and money in almost every treasury ; all benevolences fully sustained or increased ; certainly this is a record over which both pastor and people may well be congratulated and may heartily rejoice.

Rev. W. G. Simpson has made such a grand record each year at Oxford that I have feared there must come reaction, but this year there is still an advance along all lines. The membership is increased ; some have been converted ; every benevolence is advanced, and all departments of the Church are thoroughly organized. Brother Simpson is deservedly popular with all the people of Oxford and they earnestly ask his return.

Brother W. M. Shaw's third year at Plymouth has in every respect been his best. He reports a number of conversions ; increased spirituality ; larger attendance at prayer and class meetings, and that the Church is constantly gaining a stronger hold upon the confidence and interest of the community.

Preston and East Pharsalia have been served by G. B. Wilder. The Church at each of these points has been thoroughly repaired and made most comfortable and inviting. The entire amount of expenditure was fully provided for. A series of meetings were held at East Pharsalia in which more than 20 professed conversion.

Brother H. A. Williams has labored hard and earnestly at Sherburne and his labor has not been in vain in the Lord. Congregations are good ; there is largely increased attendance upon the social meetings ; 35 have been converted, and all the benevolent collections have been fully sustained.

Smyrna charge has suffered loss by a number of removals ; but is in a high state of spiritual prosperity ; I believe never better. Brother S. H. Wood has had a good year among this devoted people and as always has done excellent and faithful work. The parsonage has been repaired and steps are being taken looking to the repair of the Church.

Amid special and great discouragements Brother M. D. Mattoon has done heroic work at South New Berlin. Old indebtedness has been paid and we believe the charge is placed upon a more substantial basis for a future of prosperous work.

Brother E. L. Jeffrey's two years at Triangle have been years of great increasing success. The membership of the Church has been enlarged ; 25 have been converted, and nearly all the collections worthily advanced. During his two years' pastorate the Missionary collection has gone up from $25 to $75. Thank God for the coming forward of such young men.

Wm. Frisby, always successful, has had a year of special prosperity at Whitneys Point. The revival spirit prevails in the Church ; some have been converted ; the Missionary collection shows a good advance and the minor collections are increased more than three fold.

Under the earnest, devoted labors of S. D. Galpin, at Willett, about twenty have been converted ; the membership of the Church has increased ; all benevolent collections are advanced and the minor collections doubled.

Summarizing now as briefly as possible the work of the year : over $4,000 have been expended in improving Church property. Pastors' salaries have again increased more than $1,000, and are quite generally paid in full. Again the district has made a good advance in missions and the minor collections increased more than one-third.

There is also an increase in the number of subscribers for our excellent Church papers.

There has been more of true, deep, revival work and spirit than either year since I came upon the district. The revivals have partaken more of the old-time Methodist type ; a burdened Church ; deep conviction for sin, and clear, glorious conversions, often of those hardened and seemingly abandoned in sin. There are reported to me 660 conversions and 514 probationers.

There are now on the district 24 chapters of the Epworth League, 4 Junior Leagues and 4 Societies of Christian Endeavor. In all of these there is a membership of about 1,200.

In conjunction with the Oneonta District another excellent spiritual camp-meeting was held at Sidney Grove. This year the entire debt of the association was paid ; the meeting was large, spiritual and marked by seasons of pentecostal power. Thank God the old-time spirit and fire have not died out from our camp-meeting. The management is against making the meeting a mere holiday, or pass-time resort, but all effort is directed to the quickening and building up of believers and the immediate salvation of souls.

Our district has been sorely bereaved in the death of old father Daniels ; an honored patriarch ; a mighty man of God ; for long years a trusted leader in our Israel. The centuries furnish but extremely few of such men, and when they fall there is a great, a general and well-nigh irreparable loss.

Personally I have suffered the one great bereavement of my life in the death of my excellent mother. After more than sixty years of true, faithful, useful Christian living, at the weary age of 84, she closed her work on earth and God gave his beloved rest. We shall sadly miss her, and she will also be missed by the pastors and the Church where she has long been a faithful helper. But thank God, amid all toil and trial and conflict we have had joy, sunshine and victory.

I earnestly thank my brethren in the ministry, their excellent wives, and also my brethren of the laity for constant and earnest co-operation ; for noble, self-forgetful, loyalty and devotion to all the interests of the Church.

Above all, I thank God for sustaining and aiding grace and for granting us such a measure of success in the work.

While we welcome him in his official relation to us, and relegate loyally to him our future work and the homes of our families, we shall pray that God may give him great wisdom and grace for the delicate and responsible service that waits upon his hands.

Report of Commission on Boundaries.—O. H. McAnulty reported for the Commission on Conference Boundaries as follows :

The Bishops presiding at the respective Conferences have also given formal notification that they concurred in the transfer.

Honesdale District.—Honesdale District was called, the character of Willis L. Thorpe, its Presiding Elder, was passed, and he read his report, as follows:

HONESDALE DISTRICT.

In giving a summary of the work done during the past year, and indicating the present status of the Church within the bounds of the Honesdale District, to the superintendency of which I was assigned one year ago, it is meet I should, first of all, acknowledge gratitude to our kind, heavenly Father for the blessing of so nearly perfect health afforded me, so that I have been able to give personal presence and effort in point of meetings of various kinds attended, sermons and addresses delivered, in number exceeding any single year of my ministry. The pastors also have been especially blessed in this regard, in that there has been no protracted illness in their homes, to an extent to hinder in their work, excepting Bro. Burgess, whose wife was prostrated in the autumn, and lingering for three months or more, passed peacefully into the rest of the people of God. Rev. A. C. Olver has been somewhat restricted for the last month by temporary illness. Rev. J. V. Newell, on Easter Sunday, filled all his three appointments, but was directly, thereafter, prostrated with pneumonia, and is, at this writing, very sick, though somewhat improved. What may have been the actual helpfulness of my labor, my brethren associated with me as pastors, can determine better than I; but I am sure the economy that brings the service of the Presiding Eldership close and intimate to the respective pastoral charges, is approved by the people generally, and invited by the results.

THE FIELD OCCUPIED.

The territory embraced in the district has been frequently described, and it will suffice to say it has not changed materially for some years, save in the "coal section," and here is the characteristic growth in population, and corresponding commercial interests, common to the great anthracite regions. In a general statement it can be affirmed the interests of Methodism are being considered and promoted with a devotion worthy of mention. While there are representatives of various religious denominations throughout the district, yet in much the larger portion the Methodist Episcopal Church is conceded to be the responsible custodian of the religious life, and the aggressive factor in seeking the salvation of the masses thereof. This fact has led me to hint to several Quarterly Conferences, that notwithstanding the much we are doing, our plans and provisions are not fully up to the needs, or even the desires, of these several communities.

At Olyphant we purpose organizing for work immediately ; indeed the initiatory has been taken. We have a plan of visitation to investigate some other of the settlements that have and are springing up all along the Lackawanna Valley, with a view to organizing classes and supplying with preaching, as the demand may appear. The policy that has dictated the adjustment of the work for a number of years, has resulted in demanding of a number of the pastors so much, that the local and separate interests have embarrassed them in their plans and crippled their efficiency. I assert, the pastors of Honesdale District, this last year, have toiled loyally and faithfully, yet with some of them it has been in the face of conflicting demands, that have diverted and scattered their personal force. I am certain we must be governed by a policy that tends toward the more intimate administration and service of the pastor, in several localities of the district, and, Bishop, if your judgment acquiesces with my view, there will be at this Conference some divisions of charges, as the beginning of this new policy. Any number of preaching places above three is just that count too many for any one preacher, and he do his work with satisfaction to himself or the possible development of the field for Christ. And in some instances on the district, even three would be too many, where now are five and more.

CHURCHES.

In the district there are sixty-eight Church edifices. On several charges some services are held in school houses. In some instances it has been thus for a long number of years. This ought not to have been, and should not continue much longer, is my view of things. The locality that needs permanent preaching service, with its accompanying meetings, should have a building exclusively for such uses.

The Churches are, with rare exceptions, in good condition. The new Church at Carbondale is a model of beauty and completeness. It is fully furnished as the needs of a modern city Church requires. The grounds are graded and fine stone walks laid wherever needed. It is indeed a beautiful edifice, built of native stone, modern and tasty in architecture, and will stand for the years, except some untoward event prevent it, a monument to the thought, spirit and devotion to God and his cause of the loyal band that ceased not expending thought, labor and means until the last stroke needed to make it complete in every respect. Its total cost was forty-one thousand dollars ($41,000). Of this amount, subscriptions to be paid within twelve months, and cash were obtained on and previous to the day of dedication, sufficient to pay all but ten thousand dollars ($10,000), which is bonded for a short time. It was dedicated September 12th, and has been enjoyed since as a place of worship, by a congregation and Sunday School, which, even now, taxes its utmost capacity.

A chapel, suburban to Peckville, was completed and dedicated soon after Conference. The balance of some one hundred and fifty dollars, needed to pay all indebtedness, was secured on day of dedication. The Church at South Sterling, an old landmark in Methodism, has been extensively improved at a cost of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500) and on Thanksgiving Day was re-dedicated. The entire amount to meet the expense was provided and nearly all paid on or previous to the dedication, and one hundred dollars in excess, which amount, with more if needed, will be expended in grading the grounds and building sheds in the early summer. The Church at Alderville, on the Bethany charge, has been thoroughly repaired, re-seated, and made decidedly attractive within, at an expense of some four hundred dollars ($400), and all paid or provided for. The Church at Rileyville, in which there has not been service for some eight or nine years, is now being put in good repair, and I have assured the people they shall have service hereafter.

The congregation at Peckville, with a commendable unanimity, are already engaged in what amounts to the building of a new Church, costing, probably, not less than six thousand dollars ($6,000). The old structure will be utilized as an annex, and be fitted up for Sunday School and social meeting uses, and an entire new structure built in front for the auditorium, with a seating capacity of five to six hundred. The entire seating accommodation when opened into one room will be nearly one thousand.

Besides these, which are worthy of special note, nearly every Church in the District has had something expended on or about it as comfort and tidiness, coupled with keeping in good repair, have required. Barely one-half of the churches and parsonages are insured. I have urged attention to this and have done all in my power to secure speedy consideration. The aggregate of the minor expenditures is some three thousand dollars.

PARSONAGES.

The pastoral charges as now arranged have each a parsonage, save three, and two of them are new fields with barely a one year's history. The majority of these houses are all that can be reasonably required, sparing the consideration of some little repairing and additions, which the people are well inclined to attend to. Several need and should have at an early date a thorough overhauling, or what would be wiser, new houses built in their stead. Our people in the main are attentive to the comfort and pleasure of the pastor's family. That this feeling increase, only requires a consideration upon the part of the pastor and his family, such as would be given to the property if it were his own, which will incite to care on the part of the people. The parsonage at Jermyn has been enlarged, and furnished with the modern conveniences of homes, at an expense of nine hundred dollars ($900). It is now all that could be desired. At Forest City a house, attractive in the exterior, roomy and commodious within, stands on the Church lot nearly ready for occupancy, a testimonial to faith in the needful, and the persistency of one man, Rev. J. C. Hogan, the pastor. All were agreed in the great need of a parsonage there, but none dare make the attempt. He dreamed by day and by night, he sought diligently for the kindly help and found much of it where none other would have thought to look, and the aggregations of contributions of material, labor and money, under the wand of his will, have materialized into a house decidedly of goodly appearance, and inviting every way as a house. The estimated worth is two thousand dollars ($2,000), and all, or nearly all, paid. These parsonages are all partially furnished, and in this feature each year marks progress. We rather need a revival of parsonage improvement, and with the advance made in other things, I judge this will not lag behind.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Sunday School department of Church work is being well looked after in the district. The information I have gathered shows a general advance in attention to and the character of the work done. The large and better equipped, and most favorably envired, report a year of marked prosperity. Our Sunday Schools are well supplied with our own Church literature, and, with rare exceptions, will be represented in the missionary columns of the statistical tables.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

The Epworth League has a conspicuous place in the activities of the Church in the district. A few new Chapters have been organized during the year, and all, with a few exceptions, have shown growth, not only in numbers, but also in the true spirit and intent of the organization. There is but one voice concerning the Epworth League, and that in its praise. In November the District League held a meeting in Carbondale. It was a superb gathering of enthusiastic young people. The program was filled from first to last—save the address in the evening by Dr. Sawyer—by young men and young women from the charges of the district. Not a pastor appeared on the program. In stating this I do not discount the pastor's relation to or service in the Epworth League, neither would I minify the place and service of persons who have passed beyond the youthful; but as a young people's organization, and the convention designed to develop the young mind and life, the idea was closely held to, and was a grand success, in attendance and quality of the papers presented and addresses given. "Group meetings" are in the plan of the immediate future. The initiatory has been taken for a "Grand Rally Epworth League Day," at the renowned "Farview" picnic grounds, on the summit of the Moosic mountain, midway between Carbondale and Honesdale, for some time during the summer. The fruits of the Epworth League have already appeared in the various departments of Church work and enterprise. Scarce a movement along any line of advance but the Epworth League Chapter is a helpful factor. If the unwritten could be read, I am sure it would reveal that the "League" is the source from whence bubbles the rejuvenated life so apparent in our Churches all over the district.

EDUCATION.

The educational facilities within the district are limited to the public schools, of which we have a good supply of such as pursue high courses of study. But I judge the district has a full percentage of representation in our "old Wyoming," of which we have reason to be proud. I have aimed to direct attention to the Seminary as opportunity has offered. Honesdale District has in tuition quite a number of young men who, at no far-off day, will grace our pulpits, as we anticipate they will be efficient soul-winners for Christ.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

There are but few Auxiliaries of either of the Woman's Missionary Societies in the district. A larger number of the "Foreign" than of the "Home." Possibly I have not done what I should to awaken interest in these lines, but if derelict it is not from lack of appreciation of their worth to not only augment the treasury of these societies, but to stimulate a general missionary spirit in the local Church as well. Here is a chance for genius and persistent work.

TEMPERANCE.

The status of temperance sentiment within the district is about in keeping with the common current. So far as I can judge, by what appears sufficiently clear to be accounted for, I know of no organizations effected as provided by the General Conference special Temperance Committee, save one in Honesdale, in process of development. Further, I am informed, our Church in Honesdale has in process of organization a Y. W. C. T. U. in and for the Church. In a few instances I have learned of some work done in the line of "Loyal Legion" and "Band of Hope," particularly in Dunmore. I think the "Temperance" Sunday School lesson is pretty generally studied, and I have heard from several pastors, temperance sermons. For myself, I have designed to be a true expounder of the Faith of the Methodist Episcopal Church on this subject, as ordered, printed in the Book of Discipline, and so far as I am prepared to affirm, the pastors in the main count it fully as wise to keep the counsel in its "observance as in the breach."

REVIVALS.

In that which is the objective of one evil, viz., the conversion of the unsaved and the building up of believers, the year has been delightfully blessed. Special revival meetings were held on nearly every charge, resulting in a large number of conversions, and a quickening of the membership. The spirit manifested in the Quarterly Meetings, the last quarter, has evidenced to the good of these special efforts. From the information received, fully one thousand probationers have been added to the Church; numerous backsliden ones have been restored, and one-third as many more have been at our altars as seekers. That the methods and persistency of the fathers God honors and blesses with the sons, has been demonstrated again and again in the work of the past winter.

PASTORS' SALARIES.

The salaries of the pastors remain about as in previous years, the aggregate amount of increase being only one thousand dollars. This in nearly every case will be paid in full.

BENEVOLENT COLLECTIONS.

The several benevolent and connectional interests have been considered; and the sums gathered will be fully up with last year, I conclude, so far as I have been able to gather data. In the missionary collection I anticipate a small advance, and for the Conference claimants, a considerable increase.

CAMP MEETING.

The camp meeting was pronounced to be as good a meeting as has been held for some years. The age, and consequent out of repair condition of the buildings on the ground, make its future to be somewhat problematic.

CHURCH PERIODICALS.

Our Church papers are by no means extensively taken. I find quite a sprinkling of religious periodical literature, yet I am sure the homes of our people are not nearly furnished. I would our membership could be led to see the value of a leading, representative, well-authenticated, dignified, faith-inspiring, soul-encouraging, zeal-directing Church paper, and be as thoughtful and careful in furnishing their homes with it as they are in setting wholesome and invigorating food on their tables.

This imperfect summary but hints at the faithful, earnest, hard, persistent work the pastors on the Honesdale District, supported and assisted by equally faithful and loyal laymen, have been doing for the Master the last twelve months. He who watches the sparrow's fall, has record of it all, and in the day of accounting, the true credit will appear.

Effective Elders.—The following Effective Elders were called, their characters were passed and their reports were given: S. Homan, J. H. Boyce, Wm. Edgar, J. A. Transue, H. G. Harned, J. C. Leacock, J. C. Hogan, I. N. Shipman, C. A. Benjamin, P. R. Tower, Francis Gendall, J. V. Newell, S. C. Simpkins, B. N. Butts, F. P. Doty, Thomas Burgess, Philip Houck, L. W. Karschner, A. C. Olver, W. L. Linaberry, C. W. Todd.

Resolution.—P. R. Tower presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

WHEREAS, We have heard with sadness of the serious illness of our fellow worker, Rev. J. V. Newell, therefore

Resolved, That we extend to our brother and his family our sympathy in this their sore trial, and that our prayers shall ascend to the throne of God for his speedy recovery and for his abounding grace upon them.

P. R. TOWER.
D. C. BARNES.
W. EDGAR.

C. W. Todd.—On motion of W. L. Thorpe the relation of C. W. Todd was changed from Effective to Superannuated and his case referred to the Board of Stewards.

Oneonta District.—Oneonta District was called, the character of Asa J. Van Cleft, its Presiding Elder, was passed, and he read his report as follows:

ONEONTA DISTRICT.

We have come to the close of another conference year, and custom, if not Church law, requires a report of the work on the district. This is a difficult task. We may be able to put in cold figures the number of dollars raised for the benevolent collections, the amount expended for Church building and for improvements made on church property, and give the number who have professed conversion at our altars, and have joined our Church on probation, but words and figures fail to report the heart-sighs, the soul-struggles, the earnest prayers, heroic efforts and willing sacrifices of the 29 pastors who have labored faithfully on the Oneonta District the past year. Who can tell how much it means of hand and brain and heart to be a true and faithful pastor. Thank God, we have quite a number of them with us to-day. Nor will the largest collections, and the greatest number of reported conversions in every case prove a greater zeal, fidelity and consecration to the work of the ministry than where the figures do not make so strong a showing. We rejoice that the lives of all the pastors have been spared and that death has not invaded a single parsonage on the district this year. Some of our ministers, however, have been laid aside by illness for weeks at a time. But the people have rallied and the work, notwithstanding the pastor's sickness, has gone grandly forward.

The results of the year have by no means reached our highest ideal, yet they do bear witness to faithful effort, patient toil, and the blessing of the Lord on the labors of his servants. The religious condition of the charges is generally healthy and strong; and notwithstanding the many distracting influences the spiritual life and power of the people are increasing. The love-feasts have been times of great refreshing and profit. These glorious seasons will never be forgotten. The spirit of revival has pervaded the entire district, and more than seven hundred persons have knelt at our altars and professed to have been saved through Christ. Among the charges sharing most largely in the good work and reporting the largest number of conversions are Afton, Bainbridge, Sidney, Otego, Oneonta, Cooperstown Junction, Wells Bridge, Worcester and Decatur.

We have been pleased to watch the efforts our pastors have made to improve our Church property and leave it without a dollar of indebtedness. Churches and parsonages have been made more attractive with the judicious use of paper, paint, &c., and more comfortable with new roofs, new carpets, new stoves, new lamps, new furniture, and new furnaces. Among the parsonages which have been improved are those at Sidney Center, Otego, Middlefield, Onaquaga and Schenevus. The following churches have been made more cheerful and inviting: Mt. Vision, Westford, Masonville, Middlefield, Worcester, Schenevus, North Sanford, Onaquaga, and McClure. Our pastor and his family at Afton are made happy by the occupancy of a pleasant home recently secured. The trustees sold the old parsonage and purchased a fine house and desirable lot at what they regard a bargain. It is certainly a comfortable parsonage costing $2,250. A gem of a Church was recently dedicated at Sanitaria Springs. The cost of the building aside from the lot was $3,500. Twenty-five hundred dollars of this sum have been paid, the balance fully provided for. Another Church enterprise has been inaugurated at Brookvale on this charge. We learn that the subscriptions toward its erection cover the estimate cost of the building. Much credit is due the enterprising pastor. But for his untiring zeal and unflinching courage the former at least would not have been erected. A new Church is soon to be built at East Windsor. A lot in the village has been secured and arrangements made to put up the building.

Amid the special embarrassments of large expenditure in attending the Columbian Exposition, and of the severe financial depression, I believe that most of the preachers have pushed the benevolences with a determination to do the best possible thing for the Church. If the reports given by the pastors shall accord with the data furnished me, the district will show an advance in its contributions to the cause of missions, and the superannuated ministers, and I think of all our benevolences. I am pleased to know that we are becoming more thoroughly interested in the collection for the men who have given their lives to the Church, and are now laid aside because of age, or poor health, from active service. May God bless them. I shall not be satisfied until every charge shall raise, at least, the full amount of its apportionment.

While most of our ministers receive a fair salary, there are some who fall far short of it; and in a few instances the amount promised is not fully paid. With these pastors, foresight, economy, and prudence are necessary to meet the demands of a family with the salary they receive. There are several reasons for this failure to provide a suitable support: 1. A lack of proper system; 2. A criminal neglect on the part of the stewards; 3. Many of our farmers think of the pastor's allowance in comparison with their own counted cash, without reckoning the part of their living they do not have to buy; and yet these poorly paid ministers are happy in their work, and go forward leading men to Christ with a joy and comfort that many of our business men know nothing about.

Many of our class meetings are maintained with much of the old-time vigor, and with many attendant blessings. On some of the charges it is to be regretted that they have lost their power, and are but poorly attended, much to the loss of the spiritual interests of the Church. I am happy to report that the weekly prayer-meetings, in most of our Churches, are well sustained, and are a source of life and spiritual power. Our 52 Sunday Schools contain an army about five thousand five hundred strong, and are officered and taught by the most consecrated and efficient part of our membership, and I do not believe that any better work was ever done in our Sabbath Schools than is being done at the present time.

Second to no other interest on the district is the organization of our young people into Epworth League Chapters, for the promotion of Christian experience, the development of Christian character, and for culture in Methodist doctrine, history, usage, and discipline. There are 30 League Chapters, with a membership of 1656, and 9 Junior Leagues, membership 380, making a total of 2044 members. Two Epworth League conventions have been held on the district this year, one at Worcester and the other at Otego. They were largely attended, and were characterized by programs of a high order, deep spirituality, and a marvelous enthusiasm. The assembly held on Sidney camp ground, in conjunction with the Chenango District, though not largely attended, was a profitable gathering. Speakers of ability, representing great causes, were secured, and were happy in their addresses, doing themselves and the causes they advocated, credit. The Camp Meeting, which followed, was fully up in spiritual power to any that has preceded it. I can report that the indebtedness, so long hanging over the association, was all raised at the last meeting.

The Davenport and Fergusonville charges, formerly belonging to the New York Conference, have, by the action of the Joint Commission, and the concurrence of Bishops Hurst and Vincent, been transferred into our Conference, and naturally fall into the Oneonta District. The members of the New York Conference were slow in conceding to us what they called "sacred territory," having belonged to that body for nearly one hundred years, but they yielded to the inevitable.

Bro. William Burnside, a superannuated minister, passed from his home, in Sidney, in triumph to his home above. He joined the old Oneida Conference in 1842, and continued in the active rank for 40 years. Twelve years ago his name appeared on the superannuated list, but during this period he has been active. He could not give up his work. His greatest desire was to save souls, and he was never so happy as when he was pointing some seeker to Christ. But few men have won more souls for Jesus than he. Many who are to-day prominent in the christian ministry, and some who have already gone home, have acknowledged him as their spiritual father. God bless his memory. Though dead he still lives.

"Servant of God, well done,
Thy glorious warefare past,
The battle's fought, the victory won,
And thou art crowned at last."

I have stated a few of the visible results that have been achieved. As I intimated at the outset, the invisible are far greater, and only when the books are open shall there be a complete record of service rendered, and results attained. For the many acts of kindness and courtesies, received from my brethren, and the marvelous goodness of God, I am truly thankful. "Unto Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout the ages."

Effective Elders.—The following Effective Elders were called, their characters were passed and their reports were given: C. B. Personeus, T. F. Hall, J. L. Thomas, A. M. Colegrove, Abel Wrigley, G. B. Stone, J. H. Taylor, C. W. Babcock, N. B. Ripley, J. E. Bone, H. B. Benedict, C. H. Sackett, J. B. Cook, C. D. Shepard, B. P. Ripley, C. C. Vrooman, E. Kilpatrick, J. H. Littell.

Owego District.—Owego District was called, the character of Wilson Treible, its Presiding Elder, was passed, and he read the following report :

OWEGO DISTRICT.

It is a great privilege to report the results of the faithful toilers of the ministry and laity of Owego District, but my task is not an easy one to perform. Words and figures, however skillfully arranged, fail to adequately set forth the solid work done, and the many and varied results achieved. Our very best work is not reportable ; for under all true success in the work of God there are sacrifices, tears, heart yearnings, faith and zeal, which must be read, if at all, between the lines. Prudence dictates only a brief outline.

Thirty-three men went forth from our last session, prayerfully and hopefully, to take up the work assigned them. All but two have returned to report, not defeat, but victory. The fields were not easy to cultivate, the barriers were neither few nor small, but these men have toiled on sowing the good seed, reaping the harvest, and garnering not a few sheaves for God and Heaven. A gracious Providence has watched over the dear homes of these brethren in the ministry, and though a few have suffered from sickness, the death angel has not entered. Brother Asa Brooks seemed very near the crossing for a little time, but still lingers, "till the shadows are a little longer grown," willing to stay, but ready to depart. The superannuated brethren of the district are coming down to the close of life with no abatement of love for the brethren or the Church they served so long and well. Sister Bloomfield has been almost helpless for nearly a year from nervous prostration. Sister S. F. Wright has had quite a serious illness recently. Many of the homes of our brethren and sisters in the laity have been bereaved. Not far from 75, who communed with us one year ago in our churches, have peacefully, silently, hopefully passed out to enter the communion of the saints in light. We paused a little, brushed away our tears and pressed on, believing we shall greet them again in the morning.

Some changes of pastors were made necessary. Douglas D. King, who had served the Slaterville charge acceptably, was transferred to Olivet, Michigan; George H. Northrop, pastor at West Danby, was appointed to fill his place. Notwithstanding the difficulties which he met, he has more than justified the wisdom of the appointment. He has won the love and respect of the people, and his return is unanimously requested. Rev. S. E. Hunt, a local preacher and student at Cornell College, has filled West Danby very acceptably. He has nearly doubled the collections. Brother John D. Bloodgood, who for twenty-five years has been an acceptable member of this body, resigned his charge in October. He has accepted an appointment in the Pension Office. He desires a supernumerary relation. Tioga, the charge which he served, has been well supplied by Brother Ziba Evans. Brother Jewell, by an arrangement of the Quarterly Conference, has rendered good assistance to the pastor by preaching every alternate Sabbath on the Rome charge.

Our Church property has received careful attention at the hands of the pastors and Boards of Trustees. Early in the year, with some misgivings, a new Church enterprise was begun at Harford Mills. By the hearty co-operation of pastor, committee and people, the work was carried forward to success. The good people have a little gem of a Church, well adapted to the needs of the community. The cost was $1,600, fully provided for. At Caroline, on the Slaterville charge, a new Church is nearing completion. On the Hornbrook charge at Ghent, a hall has been built for Church purposes, and the Church at Hornbrook has been ceiled, papered and repaired at a total expense of $850. The whole amount, through the energy of the pastor, has been raised, and steps have been taken looking toward a new parsonage. The record of Wyalusing, for the past six years, has been a surprise and a joy. Its growth has been almost phenomenal. The last year, under their new pastor, has kept up to high water mark. A hall for the use of the Church has been built at Spring Hill costing $900. The parsonage has been enlarged and other improvements made costing $250, making a total raised of $1,150. A gracious revival has added 76 probationers, and the collections have not fallen off. The Vose Church on the Meshoppen charge has been renovated at an expense of $418; 90 have been added to the Church, and the charge is in excellent condition. Faithful work has been done on the Mehoopany charge, resulting in Church improvement of $225, and in the conversion of 60 and the addition of 50 to the Church. Brother Place has rounded up his full term of five successful years at Athens. Five years ago he found the Church heavily burdened with debt and somewhat disheartened. By wise and careful management confidence has been fully restored. Although the Church debt has not been materially decreased, yet the Church property has been enhanced by a parsonage, and repairs and improvements on the Church, amounting to $3,500, which with the interest has required an outlay of $1,000 annually above current expenses. The membership has increased 50 per cent., the Sunday School from 150 members to 366, with flourishing Senior and Junior Leagues. The Church has a very bright future. Our Church at Sayre has passed through a severe trial on account of the railroad strike. It is reported that there are still 600 men out of employment and some are suffering great destitution. It not only crippled the finances, but alienated many friends. Notwithstanding all these embarrassments, the report shows a floating debt of $350 paid, the interest $457, and current expenses fully met. The pastor has worked heroically and achieved grand success. Lektaville has paid on old indebtedness, and for improvements on Church property, $524. The collections will be up to or in advance of last year. Brother Sweet has had a prosperous year at Litchfield. The old parsonage has been sold, and with subscriptions and a fund of the Ladies' Aid Society, $890 have been provided for the erection of a new parsonage. The cellar is nearly completed and a new parsonage will soon be ready to receive the pastor. Thirty-nine persons have been added to the Church, the result of revival work. A new Epworth League has been organized, and collections nearly doubled. At East Newark, on the Newark Valley charge, the Church has been much improved by repairs, paper and paint, to the extent of $230. Insurance and other improvements in the Valley amount to $135. A Junior League has been organized. The collections are in advance of last year. Owego has paid an indebtedness, insurance and improvements, over and above current expenses, $400. The Church is in a very healthy condition financially and spiritually. Twenty-four persons were added by probation. The Churches at North Rome, Towner Hill, Myersburg, together with the parsonage on the Rome charge, have been roofed, papered, painted, and otherwise improved, at an expense of $500. Fifteen persons have been added to the Church. Speedsville has expended $165, and has received additions to the Church from a revival at Fairfield. Lockwood has been blessed with a precious outpouring of the spirit, resulting in 40 conversions, all of whom were added to the Church; $120 expended on improvements. The material and spiritual interests have been well cared for on the Spencer charge. There are 49 probationers, and $100 have been expended. Orwell has had a good year, $200 expended on Church property. Two new chapters of the Epworth League organized and thirty-eight probationers taken. Flemingville has expended $92, and the pastor reports 16 probationers. Other churches have enhanced the value of their property by various improvements.

The Stewards have been more prompt than usual in meeting the claims of the pastors. The pastors, with very few exceptions, will be paid in full. The service of a faithful steward cannot be fully appreciated, and is indispensable to the success of the Church.

Our benevolent interests have received careful attention in our District Meetings and Quarterly Conferences. The pastors very generally have faithfully presented them to the people. The financial depression has made it difficult to reach the standard of last year. A few charges show a falling off, but others report increase. So far as I can gather from reports there will be an advance of about $150. Collections have been quite generally taken for the endowment fund of Wyoming Seminary. The results have not been so large as the cause merits. Hon. R. W. Clinton, a trustee of Syracuse University, has very generously supplemented the collections of the district by a gift of $500.

We regret that we can not report as wide a circulation of our Northern Christian Advocate, and other Church publications, as their merits richly deserve. In every Methodist family, a Bible, Methodist discipline, hymnal and Church papers should be found. The list of subscribers remains practically the same.

The Sunday Schools were never more prosperous than at the present time. Very few go into winter quarters. Quite a general increase in numbers and interest is apparent. This great cause merits and receives the consecration of the best talent in the churches. May the blessing of the great head of the Church rest upon our Sunday School work.

Our noble army of the Epworth League is growing in numbers, wisdom, zeal, and we believe in favor with God and the Church. Great responsibility rests upon the pastors and presidents of the Chapters to give proper direction to this new movement. The work accomplished through the various departments is worthy of the highest commendation. Six new Chapters have been organized and several Junior Leagues. The League membership is now over 1,500. The few remaining Christian Endeavor Societies are doing good work.

We are glad to report good revivals on nearly every charge. Brother Warnock closes up his fourth year with a revival that swept over the whole charge. One hundred and twenty-five were received on probation. Brother and Sister Vangorder rendered efficient aid. The Sunday Schools have made a splendid advance. Waverly has had a gracious outpouring of the spirit, resulting in the quickening of the Church and the conversion of 115 persons, 91 of whom have joined the Church on probation. The Church nobly stood by their pastor in this glorious work. The Sunday School and the Epworth League are enjoying great prosperity under wise and efficient leadership. Windham has been blessed with a revival resulting in 90 conversions and 76 probationers. Candor has shared in this precious work, and after many weeks of earnest effort the pastor reports $373 in improvements and 73 additions to the Church. The year past has been peculiarly blessed both to the pastor and people of Barton charge. Brother Terry has taken to himself a wife who fills his home with delight. She has made many friends and fills the trying place of a pastor's wife with great acceptability. Twenty-six probationers have been added to the church as the result of a gracious revival. Besides the charges already mentioned, there have been revivals held at Flemingville, and 16 probationers are reported at Apalachan with 15 accessions. Camptown has been greatly quickened by 90 conversions and 50 additions to the Church. Not far from 900 probationers have been reported on the district. To Him who loved us and gave himself for us be all the glory.

For the blessing of God, which has attended our work, and the hearty co-operation of the Church, which resulted in Church improvements to the extent of over $8,000, and the conversion of over 900 souls, and for all the success that attended us, we give thanks to the giver of all good.

Effective Elders.—The following Effective Elders were called, their characters were passed and their reports were given: G. A. Place, A. J. Cook, J. B. Davis, G. O. Beers, J. R. Allen, I. C. Wyoming District.—Wyoming District was called, the character of John G. Eckman, its Presiding Elder, was passed, and he read the following report:

WYOMING DISTRICT.

When the Wyoming District was placed under my superintendence, one year ago, I found the Churches prosperous and supplied with pastors who have proven themselves heroic and devotional men of God. The year has been a laborious one, but the cordiality with which I have been received, by both ministers and laymen, has lightened its burdens and made the year one of pleasant memories. The work of the year has gone into history, and much of the fruit will be revealed only in eternity. Permit me, however, to call your attention to some important results which can readily be observed.

The material interests relating to our Church property have been looked after with care, and, so far as I can learn, all properties held under good titles, and nearly all of the buildings are properly insured. Valuable repairs have been made upon many of our Churches and parsonages, so that nearly all of them are in excellent condition.

The Church at Jackson, on the Lehman charge, has been painted, and a number of sheds for horses built upon the lot. The Church at Luzerne has a new bell, with other improvements. Cedar Avenue Church in Scranton has been enlarged by the addition of a Sunday School room and choir gallery, and some friends have presented them with a fine organ valued at six hundred dollars. Yatesville has a new furnace for their Church, the Sunday School room much improved, and a coat of paint on the Church. The Church at Providence has been reseated and otherwise improved, at an expense of over two thousand dollars, besides paying a balance on their new pipe organ, which was put in last year. Improvements have been made on the property of other charges, so that in all thirty-five hundred dollars have been expended in this way. Three new parsonages have been built during the past year. One at Askam, F. N. Smith, pastor, costing one thousand dollars, which makes a very comfortable home. The second one is at West Nanticoke. The pastor, A. D. David, labored hard to secure this pleasant home, which cost twelve hundred dollars. The other one is at the Cedar Avenue Church in the city of Scranton, and is the result of the earnest efforts of the pastor, E. L. Santee. It is the very embodiment of convenience and comfort, and cost but eighteen hundred dollars. The wonder is that any of them could be built for the amounts named. A. F. Chaffee, pastor at Derr Memorial, Wilkes-Barre, has planned for a new parsonage to be built early next year, having already obtained a number of subscriptions toward the enterprise. Five new church edifices have been completed and dedicated since the last session of our Conference. In May last a beautiful Church, worth two thousand dollars, was dedicated, free from debt, at Beaumont, on the Centremoreland circuit, W. R. Cochrane, pastor. This was a long struggle, but became a joyful victory. In September the Asbury Church, in the city of Scranton, was consecrated to God's service by Bishop J. N. FitzGerald. This is an elegant structure, costing twenty-seven thousand dollars, and will add greatly to the growth of our Church in that part of the city. Much credit is due the pastor, G. A. Cure, for the consummation of this important enterprise. A fine Church at Idetown, on the Lehman charge, was dedicated in December last. This property cost twenty-three hundred dollars, all of which is provided for, and nearly all of it is now paid. A sweet-toned bell rings out from its tower, summoning the people to worship. The pastor, J. R. Wagner, managed this enterprise very successfully. Rev. L. C. Murdock, pastor of Carverton charge, succeeded in getting his people to erect a superb edifice at Orange, costing thirty-three hundred dollars. The dedication occurred in December, and was an occasion of much interest.

The grandest achievement of all was the completion of the Elm Park Church, in the city of Scranton, which is being occupied by the sessions of our Conference. This magnificent temple needs no description from me. Its chimes of bells, its grand organ, its elegant Sunday School apartments, its library, its cathedral windows, and its charming audience room are before you, and if you would see its grandeur, look around! Never was there more heroic work nor greater devotion manifested than was shown by the pastor, Dr. W. H. Pearce, and the officers of the board during the time of its construction. Twice, during the two years it was in process of erection, was it destroyed by fire. At last success crowned their efforts, and after a week of religious services, in which Bishop Newman and many other eminent ministers took part, it was formally dedicated to the worship of God on December 17, 1893, by Bishop C. H. Fowler, after an able sermon by Dr. J. M. Buckley, editor of the Christian Advocate. This structure, with its furnishings, cost one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and the entire property, including the parsonage and grounds, is valued at $200,000, all of which has been secured by subscriptions, and nearly all of which has been paid in.

A Church at Draketown, and one at Moosic, on the Lackawanna charge, are approaching completion.

The whole amount of money expended this year for improvements in our Church and parsonage property, including the new buildings named, is in round numbers two hundred thousand dollars. In addition to this, the previous indebtedness on our property has been reduced so that there is no embarrassment from this cause on a single charge. Dr. L. C. Floyd, pastor at Simpson, has succeeded in raising two thousand dollars on their debt, besides making some valuable improvements. The First Church of Wilkes-Barre had a debt of $10,000. One Sabbath the pastor, Dr. J. R. Boyle, called attention to this fact, and raised some $800 more than the amount in a short time, which leaves this society with its elegant Church and parsonage free from all indebtedness. Besides this they are widening the influence of Methodism in that city by planting mission Sunday Schools and Churches. A deaconess is employed, who does a blessed work for the afflicted and neglected, besides aiding the pastor in mission work.

The homes of our ministers have been quite generally favored with good health. Through a kind providence I have not missed an appointment from illness during the year. I have one sorrowful note to make along this line. Early in the year the home of our dear brother, W. R. Cochrane, pastor at Centremoreland, was made sad and lonely by the death of his estimable wife, who died suddenly of heart failure. She was a true wife, a devoted Christian, and was a great help to her husband in his holy calling. She was well ready for the Master's summons, and we shall hope to see her on high.

Last September Dr. W. H. Reese, pastor of the Central Church in Wilkes-Barre, was chosen Principal of the Genesee Wesleyan Seminary, at Lima, N. Y., and accepted the position as in the order of providence, and was afterwards transferred to the Genesee Conference. The vacancy at Central Church was filled by the transfer of Dr. J. W. Webb from the New England Southern Conference. Dr. Webb's labors have been greatly blessed in this new field. During protracted revival services one hundred and fifty were added to the Church by probation and certificates of membership.

Three charges have enjoyed the full term of our pastorate. W. R. Netherton, at Forty Fort, has had five years of prosperity, having cleared the Church of debt, and having had excellent revivals. F. A. King has done grand work at Luzerne for the past five years, having paid for a parsonage, improved the Church, and closes up in the midst of a revival in which a hundred souls have come to Christ. J. O. Woodruff, at the close of his full term of service in Plymouth, is in great favor with his people. His pastorate has been very successful. An elegant parsonage has been built and paid for; a good revival spirit obtains up to Conference time, and some sixty have been received on probation recently.

The benevolent collections have all been cared for, and will show very favorably, notwithstanding the general depression in business throughout our territory. The cause of missions has had faithful attention, and I trust all of the apportionments will be met. Some charges will make an advance over last year, while others will fall behind, owing to the stringency of the times. This district had the honor last year of having every charge in the first class in its missionary contributions, and the district was number one in all the districts in Methodism, and I trust we shall be able to hold our position. The First Church, Wilkes-Barre, is the banner Church in its contributions for missions within our Conference, having contributed this year to the parent society $2,702, which is $258 in advance of last year. Of this amount the Sunday School contributed $1,194.

The salaries of our ministers have kept up with last year, and some charges have made a commendable increase. The amounts raised for Conference claimants and the Episcopal fund will be very creditable.

The religious training of our children and young people has had careful attention. We have eighty Sunday Schools, with 1,590 officers and teachers, and about 13,000 scholars. A large majority of the schools are organized into missionary societies, and all of them take collections for missions.

We have forty-five Epworth League chapters and twenty-two Junior Leagues. These are sources of power for religious culture and spiritual growth which cannot be measured by numbers nor expressed in words.

Large numbers of our Church periodicals are taken, but many more should be put into the homes of our people.

The Wyoming Seminary, a school of high academic grade, is located at Kingston, within the bounds of this district, and under the superior administration of its President, Dr. L. L. Sprague, has more than maintained its popularity and marked efficiency. It has 20 competent instructors, with 235 academic students, 180 preparatory students, 155 commercial students, 115 in instrumental music, and 75 in art. It had last year 30 academic graduates and 60 graduates in the business course. The grounds and furniture are valued at $250,000; endowment, $25,000; apparatus, $2,500; specimens in cabinet, 1000; volumes in library, 3,500. Income from tuition is $15,500, and from other sources $12,500. The indebtedness is $9,200. Wyoming is its patronizing Conference, but students come to it from all parts of the world. The anniversary occurs June 20, 1894. This institution was founded in 1844, and is now celebrating the semi-centennial of its history by enlarging its capacity for usefulness through the contributions of its friends, which will be more fully explained in the annual report of the Board of Trustees to be presented to this body.

We have no regularly organized "Itinerant's Club" in this district, but we have two Preachers' Meetings, one which meets in Wilkes-Barre twice in a month, and one that meets in Scranton three times in each month. We have also a District "Ministerial Association," which convenes for a two days' session three times in a year. These are very helpful to the pastors in their work. Original papers are read on the leading questions of the day and followed by discussions.

The great question of temperance and prohibition has received a share of attention by our people, but not so much as the importance of the subject demands. The liquor traffic and the drink habit constitute the chief barriers to the advance of Christian work, and more ardent zeal should be manifested upon the part of Christians for its suppression.

An "Assembly" was held on the Wyoming camp ground for one week, commencing August 14th, which proved to be very entertaining and instructive. A day each was given to the following subjects: Our Young People, Missions, Education, Temperance and "Columbian Day." The evenings were devoted to popular lectures. The committee for next Summer have outlined a broader field, including more of the Chautauqua idea, and expect to hold a two week's session. Our annual Camp Meeting was held for one week, commencing on the 22nd day of August, and was a source of great spiritual profit to many. It was more largely attended than heretofore.

In concluding this report I can but speak more directly of the spiritual revival work. This, thanks to our blessed Heavenly Father, has kept in the advance line with every branch of Church work, and stands pre-eminently above all. The love feasts and sacramental services have been seasons of spiritual refreshing. The Quarterly Conferences have been harmonious, and intelligent inquiries have been made into all of our great interests. The class meeting is still an active and helpful institution in our Churches, and I trust the time will never come when it shall be abandoned.

A general revival spirit has pervaded our charges during the year, and I believe souls have been won to Christ on all of them, while several places have enjoyed extensive outpourings of the spirit. At Elm Park, Dr. Pearce has received 180 on probation. At Ashley, Rev. John B. Sweet, pastor, there have been 150 conversions. Time will not permit me to specify the work of each charge. The following charges have enjoyed more or less extensive revivals: Central, Derr Memorial and Parrish Street in Wilkes-Barre, Askam, Carverton, Dallas, Eaton, Kingston, Larksville, Lehman, Luzerne, Maple Grove, Plains, Plainsville, Plymouth, Asbury, Providence, Simpson, Tunkhannock, West Pittston, Wyoming, Pittston, and Brother Parsons, of Waverly, is in the midst of a gracious work at Clark's Summit now. As far as man can decide there have been over seventeen hundred conversions. This is glorious! And yet greater victories await us if we can but trust God for them. Let us labor, pray and wait.

Mid-Year Examinations.

The Conference directs that the plan of Mid-Year Examinations in vogue for the past three years be continued this year. This plan is essentially as follows :

MODE OF EXAMINATION IN CONFERENCE STUDIES.

The Conference Directs :

- 1st. That great care be used in appointing Examining Committees.
- 2d. That the particular work to be done by each committeeman be assigned early in the year.
- 3d. That all examinations be conducted in writing.
- 4th. That a session of two or three days be held during the autumn, at some central place in the Conference, where all the classes shall assemble with the Committees, where they shall conduct the examinations for half the studies for the year. There shall be associated with the gathering, sermons from able and prominent men; lectures; drill in pastoral methods; question hours as to habits, modes of study, financial methods, manner of presenting the benevolences, &c., &c.
Thus half the work of the year will be passed upon before the special work of the winter is begun. This can all be secured with slight expense if the gathering shall be entertained by some Church and pastor. The remainder of the course can be conducted at Conference.
- 5th. That the whole matter of time and place, details of the gathering and examinations, be placed in the hands of the Committee on Examinations, the Bishop being requested to name a Chairman for the whole.
- 6th. That candidates for Admission on Trial and for Local Deacon's and Elder's Orders be exempt from these Mid-Year Examinations.

The Board of Stewards, having carefully considered the "Annuity Fund" plan, as submitted to them by J. Benson Hamilton, would report that they do not consider it expedient at this time to adopt the plan there recommended, and suggest that the same be laid over for more mature consideration. They would also call special attention to the inadequate amount at the disposal of the Board, for necessary cases, and recommend that earnest endeavor be made, on the several charges, to meet, in full, the apportionment made for this purpose.

The Board of Stewards recommend that the sum of $6,500 be apportioned to the several districts of the Conference, to pay the claims which may be allowed next year.

We wish, also, to emphasize the importance of the pastors calling the attention of the claimants, and the Quarterly Conference committees to the necessity of carefully filling out the blanks, by which application is made to this Board.

We also recommend that Mr. G. D. Couch, and the Secretary of the Conference, prepare suitable blanks for applications to this Board.

Memoirs.

REV. WILLIAM BURNSIDE.

Rev. William Burnside was born in the town of Maryland, Otsego county, Dec. 20, 1817, and died May 25, 1893, at Sidney, Delaware county, N. Y. The funeral was held at his late residence, and was attended by a large number of ministers and friends. It is impossible to make a true estimate of his work. It was adapted in every detail to the place in which it was performed. The volume of his earthly ministry is closed, and he has gone up to join the immortal host. He said "he could not remember the time when he was not the subject of serious impressions." Under the preaching of Rev. Daniel Fancher he was awakened and sought peace, but found it not; and with a mind imbued with Calvinism, concluded he was a reprobate. For three long years he lived in a state of despair. When 19 years old, Rev. A. E. Daniels and John Crawford preached near his home, and during protracted meetings held by them he was deeply convinced that he should engage in the service of God.

He said, "I saw no way of escape, my heart was hard, my eyes had been strangers to tears for the last three years. I commenced praying. I resolved to gain the Savior's love or perish trying. I sought for several days, weeping. The evening of the 4th day of January, 1837, God forgave my sins and for Christ's sake set my soul at liberty. Immediately I heard the voice of the Spirit say: 'Go, preach the Gospel.' I did not obey and darkness fell upon me, and sorrow filled my heart. I lost voice and enjoyment in prayer meetings on two occasions, and told my brethren I must commence in the work or die. I at once began the preparatory course, and was received on probation in the Oneida Conference in 1842." Our brother labored in New Berlin, Butternuts, Richmondville, Otsego, Verona, and many other charges. His labors extended over a great area. As circuit preacher, in the earlier history of his ministry, he was obliged to travel many miles on horseback, or with carriage, over poor roads, often obliged to walk long distances. He was possessed of wonderful power of endurance. Even down to old age he boasted of "never having seen a day of sickness, or ever having been physically incapacitated for service." With a "sound mind in a sound body," he was well qualified for duty. He gave calm and unprejudiced attention to all questions of moral reform, with a "generous mind that added dignity to every act." His religion was as broad as the Bible, a "thus saith the Lord" decided everything. Happily for him, he had a true helpmeet to co-operate with him in his work—a woman of much dignity of mind and excellence of disposition, filled with the love of the Master for the erring and sinful, ever sympathized with and inspired her husband. Of him it can be truthfully said, he was the greatest soul winner of the sections wherein he labored. His mother was a member of the Presbyterian church, a Christian woman of a judicious, sensible and cultivated mind; and who can estimate, in its far-reaching and wide-spreading results, the extent of the influence which, through this one child, she may exercise over the generations of men? For this son, through her judicious care, had been filled with the active and enthusiastic love of goodness, with the spirit of pure and enlightened Christianity. A mother wielding the moral scepter of the world through her son, whose voice is silent, but whose work will go on. He was beloved by all. He loved the Lord with all his heart, and preached the Gospel with all his might. A man of faith, always hopeful, and in his illness preceding his death, while suffering, he said, "I would be glad to go and be with Jesus, nevertheless 'His will, not mine, be done.'" His mind was clear; Divine light, as the human strength failed, shone through every lineament. The all-sufficient God was with him, and

"As a cloud of the sunset, slow melting in heaven,
As a star that is lost when the daylight is given,
As a glad dream of slumber which awakens in bliss,
He hath pass'd to the world of the holy from this.

"He hath passed, but, oh! sweet as the flow'rets that bloom,
From his last lonely dwelling—the dust of his tomb,
The charm of his virtues, as Heaven's own breath,
Shall rise like an incense from darkness and death."

REV. SAMUEL W. SPENCER.

Rev. Samuel W. Spencer was born in Wau-tage, N. J., and educated in New York city. His father was a Baptist minister of prominence, but the son chose to make his home in the Methodist Episcopal Church, to whose doctrines and usages he gave unswerving loyalty. Early in the war for the Union he enlisted in the Sixty-seventh Ohio Infantry, and served for four years and a half. In 1869 he was married to Miss Florence A. Sanders, of Litchfield, Pa., who proved very helpful to him in his work of the ministry.

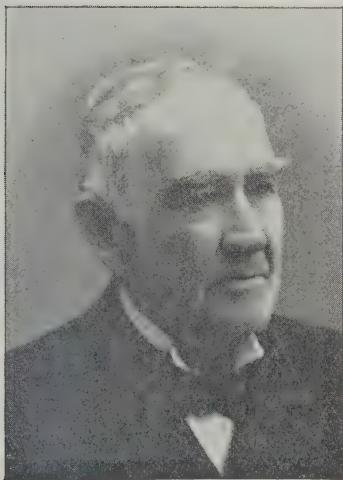

At the session of 1873 he united with the Wyoming Conference, and did faithful service until failing health compelled retirement from the work to which God had called him. He served the following charges: 1873, Broome; 1874, Lanesboro; 1875-6, Hawleyton; 1877-8, Sanford; during the two years ensuing broken health compelled a supernumerary relation; 1881, Rileyville; 1882, Canaan; 1883-4 Narrowsburg. He then took a superannuated relation, in which he continued until called to his reward.

On most of his charges revival fires were kindled, and some were of wide extent, notably at Sanford, where 250 were converted. After his retirement from the effective ranks he still labored patiently on as strength permitted, and his soul was cheered by seeing sinners led to Christ. His fatal malady was heart disease, from which he was a great sufferer, and on June 5th, 1893, at the age of 56, he was suddenly called from his home in Mt. Pleasant, Mich., to his home in Heaven, where "there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain." A grief-stricken wife and six children survive him, but he leaves them the legacy of a pure life, and a triumphant death.

May there be a blessed reunion in "The sweet bye and bye."

REV. ALEXANDER E. DANIELS.

Alexander E. Daniels was born in the town of Morris, Otsego County, N. Y., May 12, 1804. He passed from earth to the life immortal on Sept. 30, 1893, in the ninetyeth year of his age.

The following facts concerning his life are mainly from his own lips. His educational advantages were only such as the district school afforded, and this even he attended but a portion of the time for eight or nine years.

However, with only the most meagre advantages, and but rudimentary attainments, he was a close student all his life, and especially from the time of his conversion. He gleaned diligently from all available fields, until ere his sun touched the meridian, he possessed a mind richly stored with that knowledge, which made him an intellectual giant of his day. When he was sixteen years of age his father relinquished all claim upon his services, and he became his own master. He learned the trade and became proficient as a clothier. When 20 years of age in July, 1824, he was gloriously converted to God. I regret that the experiences and forces leading up to this remarkable change are not matters of record. Like Saul, of Tarsus, Christ met him on the highway and saved him. There was certainly a Pauline spirit in our grand old hero. Within a very few weeks after his conversion he became a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. While yet a convert, weak and temptable, he removed into a rural community, where, being deprived of Church privileges, he lapsed into a state of spiritual coldness and indifference, and drifted into the shadows of doubt and skepticism. Only a little time, however, did he linger in this dangerous wilderness, when he emerged once more into the blessed light of a clear Christian spirit.

This was the Kadish Barnea of his spiritual life. He now entered the valley of Eschol, and here, among the vineyards, he dwelt until God took him. Immediately upon this recovery he began to hold meetings, and soon over forty souls were converted, an earnest of the rich fruitage of his after years.

He here received a positive call, through the Holy Ghost, to the work of the ministry. A sense of deep unworthiness, and conscious lack of mental training, led him to falter, and for a time he disregarded the divine call. At length, as he was one day crossing a field, God spoke to him, he said, as distinctly as though the speaker was at his side. He was "not disobedient to the heavenly vision." That hour recorded his unconditional surrender to the will of God. In 1834 he joined the Oneida Conference, and was appointed to the Otego circuit. During the 34 years of his effective ministry, he served the following charges, and in the order named: Otego, Chenango, Westford, Otego, Exeter, Frey's Bush, Springfield, Middlefield, Westford, Deatur, Otego, Schenevus, Morris and South New Berlin. In 1868 he took a superannuated relation, and retired to his home in Morris, where, a constant benediction to the Church and community, he waited the Father's summons to come up and receive his crown.

Brother Daniels was a man of superior natural intellectual ability, a clear thinker, a strong, logical reasoner, and a preacher and theologian of unusual power. He stood in the forefront of giants of those days. He was an able and fearless defender of the faith of the fathers. He invited, rather than avoided, an open conflict with the strongest advocates of error the age could produce. He became, and was universally acknowledged, the ablest champion of the distinctive doctrines of the Church of his choice, to be found in all the extended region of his ministerial labor. Always sandaled, and girded, and panoplied, he could not be surprised or vanquished.

He was mighty in prayer. I have known him to remain on his knees more than three hours, without once rising, with faith and fervor that never yielded until victory came, and then a pentecost that can never be forgotten. With a face beaming with a glory that seldom falls on human faces below the stars, and hallelujah that echoes down through 30 intervening years, so that I hear them now, he shouted the praises of God and waved the trophies of his victory.

Alexander Daniels did not die. At 90 years of age he showed no signs of intellectual failure or infirmity. His brain seemed to be as vigorous, his mind as clear, evidently, as in middle life. Like Moses, he closed up his earthly pilgrimage with his natural force unabated. He was not called up into the mountains to die. God met him in the valley and kissed him into peaceful slumber.

On that Autumn evening when he departed, death may have approached him, but could not harm him. One with beaming face of great love, with hands, feet, brow and side scarred with nails, with thorn and spear, sprang between Death and his victim, and said: "I will come again and receive you unto myself." "Lo, it is I, be not afraid."

Alexander Daniels is not dead, only crowned.

MRS. REV. W. R. COCHRANE.

Mrs. Phrocene D. Cochrane was born at Fly Creek, Otsego, N. Y., May 28, 1836. She was united in marriage to Rev. Wm. R. Cochrane in Dec., 1860. At the age of seventeen, under the labors of Amos R. Wells, of Oneida Conference, she consecrated her life to Christ and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she continued a faithful, loving and useful member, till called, without warning, to her reward in the Church Triumphant, on May 28, 1893.

The characteristics of Sister Cochrane's christian life, were, evenness, consistency, and fervor. She was strong in faith, instant in prayer and not lacking in wise zeal. During her husband's pastorate at Castle Creek she was appointed secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of Chenango District. She called and held the first convention at Norwich, and organized the district for work; this relation of secretary she held until moving within the bounds of the Honesdale District. Sister Cochrane was thoroughly interested in all departments of Church work, and won and held the affection of both old and young.

Much, very much, might be said of this estimable woman, in her relations of wife and mother, but suffice it to say, that in all these she has left a beautiful record, one that those who were the nearest to her may look upon with pleasure and with pride. The funeral services were held at the parsonage at Centermoreland, May 30. Addresses were made by several ministers, and the bereaved husband and two sons bore the precious form to the beautiful cemetery at Union, N. Y., to await the resurrection, when, we hope, the family, unbroken, will meet to part no more.

MRS. REV. WILLIAM WENTZ.

On the 30th of May, 1893, at Owego, N. Y., Mrs. Sarah L. Wentz exchanged suffering for peace, and this life for a blessed immortality. She was the widow of the Rev. William S. Wentz, who was for many years an honored minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She shared with him the dangers of his early ministry, when his outspoken loyalty put his life in jeopardy, and the more peaceful but not less arduous toils of his latter years, always a helpmeet to the aggressive itinerant. During most of the period of her widowhood she had been in poor health, but she quietly suffered on, believing that "Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we look not at the things that are seen, but at the things that are not seen." Death came suddenly, occurring while she was sitting in her chair at the close of the mid-day meal, but though it surprised her friends, it found her ready. She had been living for the better land, and at the summons, hastened gladly away. The body was taken to Rochester and laid beside the dust of her departed husband. A son and a daughter survive.

MRS. REV. ELI F. ROBERTS.

Mrs. Catharine D. Roberts, widow of Rev. Eli F. Roberts, for many years an honored member of the Wyoming Conference, was born in Sussex county, N. J., April 11th, 1826, and died at her home in Meshoppen, Pa., July 22d, 1893. Shortly after her marriage, which occurred in 1849, her husband entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and for over 30 years she shared the joys and sorrows of the itinerant life. Upon eight different charges, beginning with Newton, and ending with Meshoppen, she assiduously labored as a pastor's wife. By her genial manner, her brilliant powers as a conversationalist, and her intense interest in the spiritual welfare of the people, she endeared herself to many hearts on every charge. During the past three years of her life, though crippled by rheumatism, and unable to attend to household duties, and deprived of the privileges of the sanctuary, her callers saw a smiling face, and heard the testimony to unwavering faith in God. As she was sitting in her chair, without a moment's warning, her head dropped back and she passed from the scenes of earth to the land of rest and joys eternal. Largely attended funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Meshoppen, conducted by her pastor, assisted by Rev. Wm. M. Hiller, of Tunkhannock, and Rev. I. J. Smith, of Wyalusing. Her body was laid at rest in the Overfield cemetery, beside that of her husband, to await the resurrection of the last day.

MRS. REV. THOMAS BURGESS.

Sarah Hill, wife of Rev. Thos. Burgess, was born in London, England, March 23, 1823, and died in the parsonage at Pleasant Mount, Wayne county, Pa., February 3, 1894. She had been somewhat enfeebled for several years, but could the most of the time attend to the duties of her home up to about three months of her decease. She was converted when quite young, and joined the Wesleyan Methodist Church in England. She came to America in 1856. In the spring of 1857 she began the life of an itinerant wife in the Wyoming Conference. She was a faithful and encouraging helpmeet up to the last. By her agreeable manners and cheerful spirit she gained hosts of friends in several communities where they lived and labored for over thirty-five years, subjected to the common discomforts and incongenialities, as well as pleasurable experiences of the Methodist itinerancy. Her last days crowned her years of usefulness by breathing sweet benedictions upon all who came in contact with her. The family bereaved consist of husband, one daughter and two sons. Her remains were interred at Kirkwood, N. Y.

Pastoral Address.

The members of the Wyoming Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, servants of Jesus Christ, separated by his will unto the ministry of his gospel, and now in Conference assembled,

To all the flock in the which the Holy Ghost hath made us Overseers, beloved of God, called to be saints, greeting : Grace be unto you, and peace from God, and from Jesus Christ our Lord.

It is meet for us to think of you all because we have you in our hearts, and with this, our pastoral salutation, we pray that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment ; so that ye may approve the things that are excellent ; that ye may be sincere and void of offense unto the day of Christ ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness which are through Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.

We hail you, dearly beloved, with manifold rejoicings. For God's unspeakable and eternal gift in the person and ministry of our glorious Lord, for his written word, for the throne of grace, for the offices of his militant Church, for our high calling unto salvation, for persevering strength in labor and for supporting comfort in sorrow, for our fellowship in Christ, for the results vouchsafed our mutual defence of the truth, our confession of the faith, our appeal to sinners, and our endeavors to edify each other, for our hope of heaven, for the triumphs of our blessed dead who have departed hence in the Lord, and for the certain victories which await those who remain, we pray you to join us in ascribing hearty and unfeigned thanks to the Lord Most High. God hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad. He hath crowned the year with his goodness, and hath turned again our captivity as the streams in the south. Never before, as individuals, as a Conference, or as a Church, have we had greater reason for devout gratitude. And therefore we pause in our official deliberations, earnestly to thank God and take courage, and to challenge your praise also for his loving kindness and his mighty works. The forthcoming report of this Conference session will record the fact that the forty-third year of our associated history has been unexampled in achievement. Let the closing hours of that year be resonant with the praise of the grateful, hopeful Church.

But the past is simply the waymark of the future. It is more than a divine fulfilment of promise,—it is God's guarantee of higher power, it is his call to greater faithfulness, it is his prophecy of nobler conquests. Suffer us then to remind you, with ourselves, of our enlarging privileges and increasing responsibilities as "stewards of the mysteries of God."

There is no new word to speak. As of old, so now, the voice of the Lord comes to his people saying, "Stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls." We have not outgrown the divine requirement respecting character. We cannot barter our works for righteousness. Now, as ever, "the Kingdom of God cometh not with observation,"—it is "within you," and, therefore, first of all, we exhort you to renewed zeal in holy living. Christianity, in its highest form, is spiritual life, and it is a divine law that it shall thus be always in evidence before men. We need, to-day, perhaps supremely, the emphatic re-assertion of virile spiritual individualism in the Christian life. Personal piety exists, and is deepening in the Church, but it needs to be encouraged, and matured. There are conditions which seem to retard its development. Defective and sometimes positively erroneous guidance upon the part of professed teachers respecting the initial experiences of salvation, through which persons enter the Church without spiritual life, and, what is more unfortunate still, under false conceptions of the very plan of salvation; the highly organized state of our societies, which unwittingly discourages subjective experience by an over-emphasis of good works; the deplorable decline of the class meeting influence; and the worldly example of many professing Christians of our own and other names, are some of the facts which, in our judgment, complicate and embarrass the growth of simple, heart-felt, positive piety among us. The influence of these things tends to enfeeble the spiritual life of the very germ of the Christian commonwealth,—the soul itself,—and thus to paralyze the work of the Holy Ghost. We need to revert to the problem of personal salvation, and we need, especially, to place a new and positive emphasis upon the spiritual importance of the post-conversion life of the believer. The characteristic life of the Church must not be spiritually uncertain, or immature. Full orb'd Christian manliness, radiant Christian womanliness, fruiting on the one hand in unselfish philanthropy, and on the other in unworldly godliness, is the responsibility of the Church before the gospel and the race, as we confront the twentieth century of the Christian era!

Character,—Christlike, Christ-revealing character,—in the pulpit and in the pew,—is the argument by which the Church must hold its own people, and win the world. The voice of the Church is not enough. Her life, hidden with Christ in God, is her argument to men. There are those who are, and can be, reached by her exhortations and appeals, but the great world can only be aroused from its indifference, its unbelief and its sins, by her life. It demands from the Church not only moral authority but moral example as well. It requires an applied Christianity that will harmonize religious ideals with human practice in both earthly and heavenly affairs, throughout the entire sweep of moral activity. It calls for a Christ-life of purity, fidelity, brotherliness, and sacrifice, on the part of every Christian professor. This is the price of its submission to the gospel, and for this illustration of the gospel, it waits. And God also waits to behold, as the product of the modern Church, not colossal organization and aggregated power alone, but magnificent manhood whose personal impact leaves everywhere the image of Christ. "Therefore," brethren, "as ye abound in everything, in faith, in utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also."

Accord us, secondly, in this brief fraternal message, a kindly word respecting the Church, itself, with which we are in common identified. Methodism is one of the great facts of modern Christianity. It exists in respectful and sympathetic relation to all other forms of evangelical religion, and yet it is organically distinct from them. And it has a reason for its existence. It represents a scriptural and practical movement in the aggressive development of the gospel. Doctrinally, experimentally, ecclesiastically, and morally, it is worthy of our loyal allegiance and love. Its confession is at once Biblical, intelligible, and practical. Its spirit, while definite and joyous, is lofty, humane, and tolerant. Its administration is courageous, self-sacrificing, and enthusiastically consecrated to Christ. It has developed an imposing body of connectional benevolences; a great and growing educational system; a vast and helpful literature; and a world-wide personal constituency. Moreover Methodism is our own spiritual mother. She led us to God. She has provided and welcomed us to the privileges of the kingdom of Christ. She has honored us with her confidence and her sympathy. She has, under God, made many of us what we are in this life, and has shown us what we can become in the next. We have accepted her spiritual guardianship, and have taken upon ourselves her name. Our vows of loyalty are written upon her altars. Our faith in her is registered on high. We owe something to the Church that has brought us to Christ, and that we have chosen as our own from among the sisterhood of Churches. We owe to Methodism, not a blind and narrow adherence, indeed, but a broad, loving, and noble loyalty. We should stand true to her theology, her experience, and her polity. We should train our children to respect and accept her. We should, ourselves, sacredly sustain her holy ordinances. We should study and support her splendid benevolences. We should give our sons and daughters to her schools. We should patronize her publications. We should dedicate alike our wealth and our poverty to the upbuilding of her places of worship, her institutions of learning, and her philanthropies. More than ever, let us appreciate our ecclesiastical inheritance, let us pray for its prosperity, let us conserve and extend its conquests, and thus let us deliver to those who shall shortly succeed us in the privileges and service of its communion, the legacy of our intelligent and consistent devotion.

Yield to us, also, a suggestion concerning "the Church in thy house." The home was the germ of the Church, and it is a sanctuary of God. The marital bond is the sign of Christ's relation to his Church. The parental office is a sacred ministry. To the earthly temple, thus established, God sends virgin and redeemed human spirits from his own hand. From that temple he requires these holy wards again, disciplined for earth, and dedicated to heaven. The time has come for us to feel, as well as to know, that all children are born within the covenant of grace, that they belong to their Lord from their birth, and that they may and should be His in vital assurance, from the dawn of their moral consciousness, onward forever. The gospel makes no exception to this law. "The promise is unto you and to your children." The highest function of the home, therefore, is religious. It is to shelter, educate, and protect its youth, of course, but above all, its mission is to separate them to holiness and God. Its solemn responsibility is to restrain them from sin, and to win them to righteousness. This is its crucial test, and its sublime commission.

See to it, then, well beloved parents, that your dear children are dedicated to God in early infancy in the holy and beautiful rite of Christian baptism, and that they are taught to lip and love the Savior's name so soon as they can speak your own. Let the Sunday school and the sanctuary be made to attract and support the virginal life of the budding soul. But beyond all else let the home itself be consecrated as the temple of the child. There let the open Bible, the family altar, the sweet hymn, the good book, and loving religious converse have their appointed place. Whether the home be humble or whether it be palatial, love will adorn and salvation will glorify it, and the charm of a gentle and consistent parental example will render the gospel beautiful and indispensable to the pure and eager spirit of the child. Let the home realize the scriptural ideal, and it will be the child's earthly heaven, from which his heart cannot be beguiled by the dark forces of evil that throng the earth for his distruction. The path from the Christian hearth-stone must lead, never towards sin and death, but ever and infallibly towards Christ and life eternal. Salvation is the birthright of the children, and the supreme office of the home is to secure it unto them. Oh ye, to whom ordination to this holy office is given, so live and labor that you shall at length present yourselves and your children before your Heavenly Father with the triumphant words of your Redeemer upon your lips, "Those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost."

And now, dear brethren, "pray for us that the word of the Lord may have free course and be glorified." In the order of the Church we shall shortly return to the Lord's work among you. Whether we shall come to resume existing relations, or to assume new and untried responsibilities,—whether to live or die,—we know not, but we trust that we shall come "in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ." Strike hands with us bravely in the love of Jesus, and with abiding faith in "God who giveth the increase," for the work of the opening year.

Report of Trustees of Wyoming Seminary.

To the Members of the Wyoming Annual Conference.

Dear Fathers and Brethren :

In presenting our Fiftieth Annual Report, we would first acknowledge our debt of gratitude to Almighty God for the blessings of another year. The school is prosperous in every department, and, all things considered, our Jubilee year is the best in our history. Death has not visited us; no cases of serious illness have occurred. Six hundred students have been enrolled thus far the current year. Entire harmony prevails, and great earnestness has characterized the work of teachers and students. No Conference Seminary, we believe, has a more thoroughly equipped and efficient corps of instructors than ours. Those in charge of the several departments of Art, Music, Sciences, Languages, Mathematics and Literature are trained specialists, and have evidenced their competence by an average of more than ten years each of successful service of the Institution. Twelve years of brilliantly successful work as President, show Dr. Sprague to be the right man in the right place. May he long be spared to guide the affairs and uphold the honor of Wyoming Seminary. The Lady Principal, and her assistants, have been untiring in their efforts to give the young ladies in their charge that mental and spiritual guidance, home care and social outlook, that leave little to be desired. Several changes have taken place. Wesley E. Lake, a graduate of Wesleyan University, has been elected to the department of Latin and Greek, in place of F. M. Davenport. A. C. Howland, a graduate of Cornell University, and brother of our Senior Professor, has been elected to the Department of Rhetoric, in place of J. H. Race, detailed on special duty. Miss Helen M. Wood, a graduate of Syracuse University, has been elected teacher of Latin and English, in place of Miss Bertha M. Bannister. Each of these have shown proficiency and efficiency in their several departments. Miss Ruth C. Peck, late of the Cincinnati School of Shorthand, has taken charge of the department of Stenography and Typewriting, and is doing successful work.

A very gracious revival of religion occurred in Kingston during the Winter, in which between thirty and forty students began a Christian life. Every young lady in the Institution, not already a Christian, was converted. The religious life of the school received a great uplift. Many were constrained to renew their vows of consecration and enter into a closer communion with Christ. The pronounced Christian character of our Seminary has become proverbial. It has always been held in the work of the Institution that to lay the foundation of well balanced culture, the spirit must be trained as well as the body and mind. While seeking to open the pathway of the student into those languages in which lie hidden the civilizations that ruled antiquity, or into those regions of pure mathematics, where have lived the intellectual giants of the past, or prepare him for enrichment with the wealth of modern scientific achievement, or give him a glimpse into the broad fields of art and literature and history, our teachers have always laid stress on the fact that the knowledge of God is the highest knowledge in the universe, and the life of Jesus Christ the highest ideal of living. They have sought to lay the soothing and directing hand upon every spring of the heart as well as the mind. Their work has been blessed of God, as thousands of living witnesses will testify.

Twenty-eight of our students have entered College or professional schools the past year. The high rank they have taken in many of our leading Colleges bears testimony to the thoroughness of their preparatory training, and once more furnishes evidence that there is no better place to prepare for College or professional life than in Wyoming Seminary.

The confidence of the solid business men of the Valley, which he enjoys to a very high degree, is the best endorsement that can be given to the work of Principal W. L. Dean, of the Commercial College. When its elegant new quarters shall have been occupied, the Wyoming College of Business will have no superior in this section of country. With a single exception the attendance was never larger than the present year.

The end of the present term completes a half century of educational work in Wyoming Seminary. The issue of the "Semi-Centennial Offering," a neat pamphlet containing engravings of buildings and former principals and a resume of the history and work of the school, render it unnecessary for this report to deal largely with the past. Suffice it to say that the record is one of such honorable and inspiring achievement as to prophecy a more brilliant future. We proposed one year ago, as a fitting commemoration of our Semi-Centennial, to raise $50,000 to erect a Science Hall and Gymnasium. Much of the great anxiety of the friends of the institution as to the success of the enterprise has been relieved by the unsolicited and munificent donation by Abram Nesbitt, Esq., of Kingston, of the Science Hall.

The building, costing $33,000, and appropriately named "Nesbitt Hall," is now nearing completion, and will be ready for dedication at the approaching Commencement. It is a three-story brick, one hundred by seventy feet, and ornamented with stone and terra-cotta trimmings. The first floor will provide a commodious room for day scholars, and ample, well-lighted rooms for the Art Department. The second floor will contain a Museum, Lecture Room, and Physical and Chemical laboratories, each with its appropriate store room, and also a small room for photography. Hitherto instruction in Physical Science has largely been confined to the text book, because of lack of room for the students to perform experiments. In the new quarters ample facilities will be given students to do their own work. Tables are arranged for a class of forty-eight. Thus all will have opportunity for the personal investigation and illustration of scientific subjects. The third floor has rooms elegantly fitted for the Commercial College and the departments of Penmanship, Typewriting and Stenography. The building is beautiful in design, lighted by electricity, heated and ventilated according to the most improved modern methods, admirably adapted to its purposes and sufficiently solid in construction to last a century. Abram Nesbitt deserves the benisons of every true friend of Christian education. While Wyoming Seminary lives his name will be a blessing and an honor. A son of the donor has placed on the building a Standard Perpetual Insurance policy of $20,000.

O, that some one, like-minded, would rise up and build for us a Gymnasium !

An exercise field containing four and one-half acres and comprising a block in the Borough of Kingston, within two minutes' walk of the Seminary building, has been purchased at a comparatively low figure. This is now being fitted up and both lady and gentlemen students will have their own exercise grounds. The heirs of the Samuel Hoyt estate, of whom the grounds were purchased, made a special donation of $6,000 toward this object.

Rev. J. H. Race, the special agent of the Semi-Centennial Fund, has been untiring in his work. His tact, strength, and heroism have been admirable, and his success in these stringent times most encouraging. We briefly summarize the work thus far :

15	charges in	Binghamton	Dist.	have contributed $	899	19
9	"	"	Chenango	"	"	"	155 44
15	"	"	Honesdale	"	"	"	361 95
18	"	"	Oneonta	"	"	"	447 52
17	"	"	Owego	"	"	"	840 52
32	"	"	Wyoming	"	"	"	60,719 68

Total, 106 charges contributed $63,424 30

Of this amount $49,217.07 has been paid and $14,207.23 stands in pledges.

96 charges have either not been visited or have failed as yet to respond to the appeals sent out.

Contributions on Semi-Centennial account are therefore as follows :

Nesbitt Hall	$33,000 00
Perpetual Insurance on same	1,500 00
Exercise Field, special	6,000 00
General Semi-Centennial Fund	22,924 30

Total so far $63,424 30

We need to provide for existing obligations, furnish the new building, make the necessary alterations required by removing several departments from the main buildings, at least $10,000 more before the new Gymnasium can be commenced. Brethren of the Conference, will you not give your hearty co-operation and support to the work of equipping your own schools? Such schools have a distinct place in educational work. They are needed to combine with sound learning and cultivated taste, genuine Christian character. They never were more necessary than to-day. To meet the sharp educational competition of the times they need the best equipment. Shall Wyoming Seminary be crippled by lack of equipment, with all the possibilities that her history and location suggest? We believe you will answer, No !

We shall ask you to continue the courtesy extended to our special agent one year ago until all the charges in Conference have been visited in this interest. We respectfully nominate Geo. S. Bennett, William Connell and Abram I. Decker for reelection as Trustees.

Respectfully submitted.

BIBLE CAUSE.

Inasmuch as the Bible is God's word to man, without which there can be no true knowledge of Him who is the light and life of men, we therefore most heartily pledge ourselves to support this great interest, by contributing of our own means, and by urging our people to give generously to the American Bible Society. We regret to report that the collections of our Conference, this year, show a decrease of $113.

G. L. WILLIAMS, Chairman.

G. F. ACE, Secretary.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal Church has on hand a work of surpassing importance and magnitude.

Since the opening of this work 9208 Churches have received financial aid, which, in many cases, formed the condition upon which depended the existence of those Churches.

In two ways is extended this aid, by direct donation or by loans, in either case affording ready money to be used in the erection of suitable houses of worship. By donation our own Conference has received from this Board $5200, and by loan $5500. The amount apportioned to this Conference for 1894 was $6000. The amount actually raised was $2488, an increase of $376 over last year.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. In view of the magnitude of this work, and the ever increasing and imperative needs, we urgently exhort to corresponding effort to raise the full amount apportioned to us as a Conference.

2. We respectfully ask the Presiding Elders to apportion the sum of $6000 among the several charges, and pledge our best exertions to meet and fill such apportionment.

3. We have noted with pleasure the zeal and efficiency of our brother, Rev. M. S. Hard, recently transferred to this important work, and still bid him "God speed" in his broader itinerary and his important mission.

GEORGE FORSYTH, Secretary.

CHURCH MUSIC.

As Methodists, we congratulate ourselves that the greatest hymn writer of history bore the name of Wesley. By birthright we are a singing people. A religion of certainty inspires song. We are gratified in the tendency to increase congregational singing among us. Singing is worship, and all should participate. We discountenance anything which tends to make our Church music simply a performance by a few, and recommend the use of such accessories as will aid and lead the congregation in enthusiastic, fervent singing.

JONAS UNDERWOOD,
A. F. CHAFFEE.

CHURCHES AND PARSONAGES.

It is with great pleasure that we glean from the Presiding Elders' reports the fact that eight Churches and ten parsonages have been built during the last Conference year; besides this, there has been considerable improvement made to the Church property, and the cost of the same nearly provided for. There are still thirty-six Churches without parsonages, and where there are parsonages they are in need of repairs, and it is the judgment of this committee that it is the duty of each preacher to make some improvement in the property, if it is nothing more than to repair the fence. Our observation teaches us that many of the Churches are kept in an untidy condition, and as this is frequently the fault of the preacher in charge, we recommend that better care be taken of the house of God.

J. F. WILLIAMS, Chairman.
H. E. WHEELER, Secretary.

CONFERENCE EXAMINATIONS.

Your Committee recommend:

First—That Mid-Year Examinations be continued.

Second—That candidates absenting themselves from these examinations be continued in those studies another year.

Third—We respectfully request the appointment of Rev. L. C. Floyd as Chairman of all examining committees.

J. B. SUMNER, President.
G. O. BEERS, Secretary.

EDUCATION.

The encroachments of Romanism, and many other adverse elements, demand prayerful and constant attention to the cause of education and an educated ministry.

Methodism, born in a university, has always been an educational Church, and unless we are prepared to surrender our position as one of the leading denominations of the world, we must keep constantly before our people the importance of a high grade of culture for our ministry, and a general diffusion of knowledge among our people. We have great cause for devout thanksgiving to God for the many institutions of learning within easy reach of this Conference.

Wyoming Seminary, presided over so efficiently by Dr. Sprague, with a faculty composed of men and women, whose culture, experience and consecration to the work, qualify them for the positions in which they are placed, is a stepping stone to all higher culture.

It is a center of intellectual and spiritual power. Born of faith and prayer, it insures us for our children an education with a Christ that saves in it; a home where we may send our sons and daughters with a kind of assurance that they will return, not simply with minds imbued with wisdom, but with souls saved by grace. The past year has been one of progress. (See Wyoming Seminary report.)

Syracuse University, which, according to the annual record, has enjoyed a year of great prosperity, gives us the assurance of increasing strength and usefulness, and enforces its claims upon the interest and confidence of this Conference. The return of Dr. C. N. Sims to the pastorate, left Syracuse without a Chancellor, but the selection of Dr. J. R. Day shows the wisdom and interest of the management.

Wesleyan University, that time honored institution, whose sons and daughters are found among the most capable and devoted in Church and country, has done, and is still doing, a grand work. The stirring address of Dr. Raymond inspired new zeal, and will not soon be forgotten.

Dickinson College and Boston University, by the work already done, inspire us with confidence in the integrity of the management and fidelity of the faculty.

Drew Theological Seminary, in her effort to carry forward the work of the kingdom of Christ, has a record through all the years of which we may well be proud. She is doing an indispensable work, and doing it well.

The Woman's College, of Baltimore, so ably represented by Dr. Goucher, with its modern buildings, group system of studies; particular care for the health of the students, and its motto, "Maximum advantages at minimum cost," deserves the patronage of all Methodists.

May the time never come when God's benediction shall be lacking for any of these.

We are in hearty sympathy with the work done by the General Board of Education as presented to us by Dr. Payne, and recommend that the collections taken on Children's Day be sent to the Secretary, and ask that the interests of our local institutions be more carefully presented to our people.

We believe that our people are favorably disposed towards higher education, and hence the opportunity for pressing the claims of our educational institutions is at hand.

We hold that it is the imperative duty of the members of this Conference to recommend our institutions, and urge upon our people the duty of sustaining them, not only with their prayers, but with their patronage.

We ask the appointment of the following as visitors to the several institutions. (See Educational Institutions.)

L. L. SPRAGUE, Chairman.

J. ELLIOTT BONE, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

In submitting this report of the Epworth League, of Wyoming Conference, the committee is conscious of the fact that figures cannot fully represent all that this grand organization has done for the young people of our Church. Even those who are not counted as members, but attend the social and literary meetings, are being made familiar with the doctrines of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the gospel of Jesus Christ. While those, who are active members, are greatly strengthened and blessed, by performing the responsible duties laid upon them in the conducting of prayer meetings, the work on the various committees, and co-operating with the pastors in planning and arranging for revival effort.

The continued growth of the League on the districts, and in the Conference, is gratifying indeed.

In the report of last year there was no division made between the Epworth and Junior Leagues, the combined number of Chapters being 212, and the whole number in both societies, 11471.

This year there are 207 Epworth Leagues alone, which, if added to the 72 Junior Leagues (an increase of 32 over last year), would make a total of 279, as against 212 last year; and a total membership of 15,448, as against 11,471, last year, or a total gain in both societies of 3,977.

There have been about twelve district conventions during the year, and last November a most blessed Conference convention was held in Tabernacle Church, Binghamton, presided over by J. O. Woodruff, Conference President. From the beginning to its close it was characterized by that fervency, and enthusiasm and spiritual power, so characteristic of loyal, intelligent, spiritual young people.

A consecration meeting, of marked power, threw revival sparks in the hearts of many, and as a result, about thirty revival fires were inaugurated, or promoted, and the flames fanned by these enthusiastic young people, who attributed their inspiration to the convention. It is said that the conversion of one delegate (an associate member), that took place the last of the convention, resulted in the conversion of a hundred souls in his home Church.

From the reports handed in, it has been ascertained that the Epworth Leagues have raised for various purposes $6,058, and 212 conversions in the League meetings.

The committee presents this year, for publication in the minutes, a tabulated statement of all the Epworth and Junior Leagues on the districts, and in the Conference, and recommends that pastors of Churches, where young peoples' societies exist, urge upon them to consider the advantages of membership in the great Epworth League.

J. O. WOODRUFF, President.
ALEX. D. DECKER, Secretary.

EPISCOPAL FUND.

Your committee beg leave to report that the Treasurer's report for this year shows an increase of $44 for the Episcopal Fund, as compared with the report for last year. Yet the increase is only 8 per cent. of the apportionment. This still leaves a deficiency of 21 56-100 per cent. of the apportionment of the Bishops' claim, as compared with a deficit of 8-10 per cent. in the Presiding Elders' salaries, and 1 2-10 per cent. deficit in the estimated cash salaries of the preachers.

The General Conference has ordered that these claims be paid pro rata. There must be some place where rests the responsibility for this lack of disciplinary harmony.

We recommend a more careful attention to this matter during the coming year.

A. W. COOPER, President.
P. G. RUCKMAN, Secretary.

FREEDMEN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION.

While we rejoice that the Conference has made an advance of $81 in its collection for this cause during the past year, yet we regret the fact that we only raised about one-third of the amount apportioned us. We believe that this society, with its forty-six institutions of learning, is doing a great work for the education and upbuilding of the poor white and colored people of the South that will not be done by any other society. We recommend the Christian Educator as worthy of an extensive circulation among our preachers and people.

$5,200 have been apportioned to this Conference for the present year. We would recommend the acceptance of the above amount and direct the Presiding Elders to apportion the same to the several charges.

ABEL WRIGLEY, President.
M. D. FULLER, Secretary.

MISSIONS.

In 1892 there was raised in this Conference for Missions $25,562, in 1893 $27,053, this year $26,455, an increase of $893 over 1892, but a decrease of $862 from last year. Three districts show an increase over last year, viz: Chenango $60, and Oneonta $76, and Honesdale $24. We are glad that in this year of financial depression the missionary collection compares so favorably with other years, and that our collection shows a less decrease than the average falling off reported from the other Conferences in the United States.

The Womans' Foreign Missionary Society has raised this year $3,274.

The Womans' Home Missionary Society has raised $5,328.

With a deficit of over $100,000, and a need of funds more pressing than every before, the Missionary Society is now passing through a most important crisis.

Your Committee would recommend the following methods as conclusive to success in filling up the Missionary treasury:

1. The distribution of Missionary literature in all Methodist homes.
2. The enlisting of the Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues in the great Missionary movement.
3. Missionary news given in sermons at various times throughout the year to arouse Missionary enthusiasm.
4. A study of the "Detailed Missionary Report" by the pastor to see that no one in the habit of giving is overlooked.
5. Personal supervision of the Committees by the pastor to see that the work is thoroughly done.
6. A great rallying day for Missions as early in the year as practicable when the collection shall be taken and the victory turn on the Lord's side.

E. KILPATRICK, President.

R. M. PASCOE, Secretary.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

We note, with pleasure, the increasing attention which our people are giving, from year to year, to the work of caring for their pastors. More and more our Church is coming to realize that "The workman is worthy of his hire"—and knowing, as we do, the importance and the delicacy of the work of the Steward as he seeks to provide for the pastor's salary, we would commend him to the kindly consideration of all who may attend upon the preached word, and we urge all such, not only to be liberal, but prompt in responding to this just call.

C. H. NEWING, Chairman.

P. R. TOWER, Secretary.

OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

WHEREAS, One day in seven for rest and worship has been God's order in every generation, and from the beginning the same was hallowed by the Creator and designed to be forever sacred, and

WHEREAS, The Christian Sabbath, made more tenderly and precious by the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ, and widely and appropriately known as the Lord's Day, has become so thoroughly incorporated into the laws and institutions of the United States of America as to be essential to the perpetuity of the government, and

WHEREAS, The Sabbath is all important to the success and permanence of the Church of Christ, therefore

Resolved, That we deem the protection of the Sabbath from the encroachments of business and worldliness a matter that greatly concerns the Church, and in which all Christians should unite, and that as ministers we will urge upon our people a more careful recognition of the sanctity of the day in Christian circles and everywhere throughout the land.

Resolved, That we commend the American Sabbath Union for its heroic, persistent and successful efforts in behalf of the Sabbath in various parts of the nation and in this city, and will aid this undenominational Christian society by assisting in the dissemination of Sabbath literature and co-operating as far as possible in its plans and work.

The Committee has received greetings from the General Secretary, Rev. J. H. Knowles, D. D., and, at his request, informs the pastors of the Conference that Sabbath literature, concerning every phase of the question, may be obtained at the Society's office, 203 Broadway, New York, at the mere cost of printing.

Resolved, That we hereby express our appreciation of our brother, Rev. F. A. Dony, a member of this Conference, who, as District Secretary of the American Sabbath Union for Northeastern Pennsylvania, has succeeded in procuring important results, and that we commend him to all the Churches.

GEO. H. PRENTICE, Chairman.
H. G. HARNED, Secretary.

PUBLICATIONS OF THE BOOK CONCERN.

As a Church, we have abundant reason for thankfulness in the financial success of our publishing houses during the past year, as expressed by the statistical report referred to this Committee, and by the address before our Conference of Dr. Hunt, the senior agent of New York. Of the firm business basis upon which our publishing interests stand, we have occasion to be proud. Your committee, to whom these interests have been submitted, beg the privilege of calling attention to the following resolutions;

Resolved, 1, That we insist upon the support of our periodical literature throughout all our charges, and that we will exercise the full power of our influence especially against the use of Sunday School helps other than our own.

Resolved, 2. That we are, as ever, pleased with the able and scholarly management of the Christian Advocate, and of the Northern Christian Advocate; approve the action of the Conference in conceding to a reduction in the price of the latter, and that we will, with renewed diligence, seek to bring these indispensable aids of our work into the homes of all our people.

Resolved, 3. That we recognize, with gratitude, the high scholarship of the Methodist Review, the increasing usefulness to us of its every department, and that we all, especially the young men of the Conference, will extend to it our patronage. That we recognize the value, in the study of our great mission field, of The Gospel in All Lands, and World Wide Missions, and pledge them our most hearty support.

L. C. FLOYD, President.
N. B. RIPLEY, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That, at the close of this Annual Conference we feel that the resolution of welcome to our honored and beloved Bishop Hurst at the opening session was fully merited. That his inspiring addresses and impressive sermon have added to the lustre of his name among us, and have increased our affection for him. Also, that we shall remember with great satisfaction his model methods of conducting the business of the Conference, and his dignified and courteous treatment of all its members.

Resolved, That the presence of our visiting brethren and sisters, with their several interests vital to the progress of the Church, has been to us a stimulus to greater activity in these several lines of Church work and benevolence.

Resolved, That our thanks are due and are hereby tendered to the Third National Bank of this city for favors received ; and, also, to the railroads which have so generously given us reduced rates of travel.

Resolved, That we express to our faithful and systematic Secretary and his assistants our thanks for their laborious service ; and that we assure the Statistical Secretary and Treasurer and their assistants of our appreciation of their attendance upon the duties assigned them. And we wish, further, to remember with gratitude the heavy work performed by the Conference Stewards.

Resolved, That we sensibly realize our great indebtedness to Dr. W. H. Pearce for having so richly provided Methodist and Christian homes for us, where we have enjoyed to the full the good things of this life in the midst of those holy family influences which are indicative of the higher pleasures of the great family of God in Heaven.

Resolved, That for the honor conferred upon us by being welcomed to this magnificent temple of the Most High, we feel that we have been treated as kings and priests unto God, and we will ever pray for his increasing and unlimited blessings on this Church and people.

C. L. RICE, Chairman.

H. L. ELLSWORTH, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Your Committee report growth in the Sunday Schools of our Church. There are 28,856 schools, with 328,343 officers and teachers, and 2,409,874 scholars. Inasmuch as the religious education of the young is of vast importance, we urge that great care be exercised in the selection of teachers, and that the pastors and superintendents unite in choosing for teachers the best men and women, those who are earnest in their spiritual experience, intelligent in mind, apt to teach, and Godly in their lives. We suggest that the plan of normal classes for the better training of teachers, as presented by the Sunday School department of our Church, be approved, and that they be organized wherever practicable. We call attention to the literature used in our Sunday School, the lesson helps, the periodicals and the library books, and recommend the Sunday School publications of the Methodist Book Concern.

We urge that parents require their children to study the lessons at home during the week, and that both teachers and scholars use the Bible and not merely the lesson helps in the Sunday School class.

The Sunday School Union has aided during the past year more than 3,000 schools of our Church, and it has no other resource, except the contributions from the charges. It asks from the entire Church the sum of $50,000, the smallest amount with which its work can be accomplished. The apportioned share of our Conference is $1,100. We recommend that this be approved by the Conference, and be apportioned by the Presiding Elders pro. rata among the charges, and raised during the coming year.

W. H. ALGER, Secretary.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Church originated in a divine purpose of redemption, the crowning aim of God. Her mission was justified by the most portentous needs of human history : needs of help, of light and of redemption. The moral rescue of the individual engages her counsels, her exhortations, and her prayers. The regeneration of society challenges her heroism, her patience of hope, and labors of love. She is the divinely appointed torch-bearer for the enlightenment of the nations. Her internal ministrations of gracious nurture and discipline are for the "edification of saints, and the perfecting of the body of Christ." Her mission is not yet fulfilled; her militancy remains. The world, the flesh, and the devil confront her still, in mailed and relentless hostility. Softness, needless self-indulgence, conformity to the spirit and practices of the world, result in a dead religion and apostate Churches.

The Church "is the salt of the earth." This must be demonstrated. Rev. Dr. Parkhurst's crusade against municipal official alliance with bawdism and rascality; the protest against the liquor traffic, by consecrated ballots; the rebuke of political crookedness and corruption; uncompromising antagonism to every form of the social evil, and sympathy with the masses instead of with the classes, will evidence her celestial origin, and her divine mission. The Church is, has ever been, always will be. Her walls expand; her towers multiply; her pinnacles rise; her foundations are sure; her future is glorious; her gates are open for the incoming of the twentieth century, for the "crowning race of human kind;" for "the world's great bridals, chaste and calm;" for the white robed heralds and the "thousand years of peace," of the long absent, ever present, and long looked for coming Messiah; for "the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it."

C. M. SURDAM, President.

F. GENDALL, Secretary.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

The trend of civilization in this age is toward a government "of the people, by the people, and for the people." This spirit permeates all nations, and the disestablishment of thrones has begun.

Our Christianity has exalted the individual by elevating all into a higher brotherhood. Even the servant is lifted into an intimate and personal friendship with Christ, who is the head and centre of all civilization. In the morning of the Christian era the one brilliant picture thrown upon the scene is that of a woman with her divine babe. The result has been the elevation of both womanhood and childhood. We believe that our own beloved country has been designed of God for the solution and development of great problems and phases of human destiny.

The centralization of divine plans, coming out of remote history, and the solidarity of vast human interests, are to-day blending in our national spirit and progress. The foundation stones of this country are the eternal truths quarried from our holy book. This is the philosophy that extends through the entire structure.

The rights of man, from the Fatherhood of God, have come to stay. In such a theanthropic government, the Church of God, with her faithful and intelligent watchmen, must ever have a most conspicuous service. Looking back over our centennial year, with its cosmopolitan celebration, we are gratified to see such marked signs of progress, and the respect shown by other nations.

We are also thankful that the convictions and Christian sentiment of our people were not found wanting on some great moral questions. The depression of business, and remarkable stringency of finance, are not unmixed with good.

1. Our people have been taught the significance of faith. In all these times there has been shortage in nothing except confidence. Hence the cause is easily seen to be, not divine, but entirely human.

2. The people are learning the importance of economy and sacrifice in times of prosperity. Traits of character coming from these habits will help to prevent such stringency in the future.

3. As luxury has forsaken the masses they have come back in large numbers to their forsaken God, and the result has been great revivals, and more than usual have been saved.

There are many evils and varied forms of vice and wickedness to be put away. While all nationalities are flocking to our shores the Church should be more active than ever before to enlighten and correctly lead them as Christian Americans. The open saloon, with all its horrible vice and crime, should not stand with legal sanction of our government before our own children and the illiterate and often degraded foreigners as they step upon our shores.

Laboring men have been brought to the front by the religion of Christ. It is, therefore, our duty to give especial attention to this class in their struggles for better homes, better education and culture, and gather them into our Churches. This is Christlikeness.

We verily believe that all difficulties of the labor problem can best be solved by the gospel which we preach. It is the "power of God unto the salvation" of all men and under all circumstances. The golden rule is the proper gauge for the poor man's loaf of bread, and also for the millionaire's gold eagle. While one flies the other should be vigorous enough "to walk and not faint."

We believe that our country at this time is in need—

1. Of a higher type of Christian statesmanship. There appears to be a lack of forethought and clearness of view as to what laws are really needed. A broadminded and comprehensive grasp of the situation seems to be the greatest demand at our capital. This can come only by development of great minds and purity of noble hearts. Fewer new bills and more new hearts in Congress would conduce to our weal. America needs a revival of statesmanship.

2. Patriotism. The ballot in an honest hand is a glorious boon, but if boodle and ballot are blended the composition is most dangerous. The old-time honor of private citizenship needs to be lifted up. Parties teach partyism, but it is the duty of the Church to train our youth in the pure love of country. Yes, love for this country for what it is and for what God intends to make it.

3. A higher standard of public morals. It is a fearful thing that men of moral impurity sometimes get into high office. We believe that all laws and the influence of public men should tend to the elevation of morals among our youth.

4. The minister should not meddle with politics. Nevertheless, the examples of Joseph, Moses, David, Isaiah and Daniel show that God's prophets should be Christian statesmen in the noblest sense, and lead public affairs in the paths of righteousness.

We welcome all phases and shades of religious belief, allowing them the same liberty of view and freedom of conscience that we ourselves claim. At the same time we hold that they should be loyal to this government and not seek to undermine our institutions or public schools.

Respectfully submitted,

C. W. TODD, Chairman.

J. W. WEBB, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE AND PROHIBITION.

The character of the liquor traffic remains unchanged.

Everywhere that it has existence it is foe to man and foe to God. It stands in the way of every true reform; it blights and withers everything it touches. No other agency so unceasingly opposes the progress of the Christian Church. No other instrumentality drags so many people from her altars. No other power plunges so many souls down to hell. For sordid pelf this accursed traffic stands ready to destroy man's honor and woman's virtue. It curses alike the man who sells and the man who buys its poisonous wares. Everywhere it is a law-breaking and man-destroying and God-defying traffic. And this monstrous evil seeks to make our laws. Nay, in many places it has, and does, dictate who the law makers shall be, and what laws they shall enact.

Enriched by the blood-money it has wrung from its perishing victims, it pays the State for the hellish privilege of slaying her sons, debauching her daughters, and ruining her homes. It ever stands ready to aid and abet evil of any and every kind, if, thereby, it may increase its power or add to its robber wealth.

This traffic, having entrenched itself in the politics of the country, having subsidized a great part of the public press; having corrupted, or lulled to sleep, in a large measure, the public conscience, seeks also to destroy or silence the Christian pulpit, and all other agencies of moral reform, that it may unchallenged prosecute its work of robbery and death.

But we need not prolong the description of its character or work. That it is a traffic of crime, woe and death is known to all—therefore,

Resolved, That the only proper attitude for earnest Christians and honest patriots to bear towards the liquor traffic is that of relentless, uncompromising hostility, and as Christian men and ministers we will fight this evil everywhere we find it: in palatial hotel or corner grocery; in high license saloon or cellar "speak easy." Does it entrench itself in the law of the land, God helping us, we will change the law so that, in accordance with divine law, rum selling shall be proclaimed a crime before God and man.

Resolved, That with faith in God we will pray for the overthrow of the traffic, and use every legitimate means to accomplish this end.

Do political parties sanction or apologize for the traffic, then our prayers and votes shall be for the overthrow of such parties.

Are political parties afraid to declare war against this enemy of our country and our homes, then in their impotence for good they should be overthrown to rise no more forever.

We may not dictate the political action of the members of our Churches, but remembering that responsibility for the evils of the liquor traffic can only end when by prayer and work, by voice and vote, they have exhausted every measure for its overthrow, we most earnestly exhort them to cast their ballots for only such men and parties as unflinchingly declare for prohibition.

We call attention to the fact that the law of our Church forbids the drinking or selling of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, the signing of license applications or becoming bondsmen for those who sell, or renting buildings for the sale of liquor, and where any of our members persistently violate these rules they should be expelled.

We recommend the reading in our public congregations, at least once a year, of the disciplinary rules in regard to temperance, and the action of the last General Conference on the subject of temperance and the prohibition of the liquor traffic, as found in the appendix, paragraph 24, of the Discipline.

Resolved, That we hail with delight the happy celebration of the ninetieth birthday of General Neal Dow, of Maine, than whom there is now living no more sturdy exponent of sound temperance principles. We rejoice that, under the blessing of God, he has lived down the malignant opposition in his native State, and has commanded the respect, if not the admiration, of all loyal and upright citizens of our country. We rejoice with him in the triumph of the glorious cause of prohibition in his own and other States, and in the hope that the day is not far distant when the cause he has so earnestly championed shall be triumphant everywhere.

Resolved, That we most heartily commend that grand organization, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union! The work these noble women have been enabled to do, under the blessing of God, in the distribution of literature, in securing the passage of laws in so many States making scientific instruction on the effects of alcohol obligatory in our public schools, in the lifting up and saving many of the victims of strong drink, in the creation of strong prohibition sentiment, in the patience, fidelity, heroism and faith with which they press the battle onward amid so much vituperation and opposition, cannot be too highly extolled. We give this noble band our heartfelt sympathy, and pray that God may continue to prosper them with still greater success.

TRACT CAUSE.

Report of Committee on Tracts:

Believing that religious tracts, wisely and prayerfully distributed, are a helpful agency in reaching those remote from places of public worship, non-attendants living near such places, and even in awakening the attention of careless Church attendants, resulting, in hundreds of instances, in the salvation of those so reached; and, furthermore, as there are twenty or more charges in this Conference whose pastors report no collections for this cause (Tracts), therefore your committee recommend that hereafter every preacher in charge shall take the collection for the Tract Cause.

ADDENDA.

In "Statistics No. 4, Honesdale District," Carbondale should be credited for "Missions, Church," $143, instead of $14, as printed, and a total of $318 instead of $189; also for Woman's Home Missionary Society $8, and in Statistics No. 3, for Conference Claimants, $84 instead of $8.

Plymouth, N. Y., Chenango District, gave $100 donation. By some mistake this does not appear in statistics No. 1.

The address of Charles L. Rice is 122 Court street, Binghamton, N. Y., instead of Union, N. Y., as printed in the Conference Directory.

The following should appear in the list of appointments for Chenango District: Preston, N. Y., E. D. Kavanaugh; Rockdale, N. Y., L. A. Wild; Willett, N. Y., P. Mead.

On page 97, 12th line, instead of "conclusive" read "conducive."

In the list of Local Preachers, on page 57, Chenango District, the following should appear: "e M. D. Mattoon, Triangle, N. Y."

Through some oversight no mention is made of the Anniversary of the Preachers' Aid Society in the list of Anniversaries on page 104. It should appear as follows:

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

The Anniversary of this Society was held Thursday evening, April 12th. Dr. Y. C. Smith, the President of the Society, presided. Mr. William Connell presented his report as Treasurer of the Society, and made an appropriate and telling address. Timely and instructive addresses were also delivered by Dr. Y. C. Smith, Dr. J. E. Price, and Hon. W. J. Welch.

Brain=Workers.

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE

is recommended by physicians of all schools, for restoring brain force or nervous energy, in all cases where the nervous system has been reduced below the normal standard by over-work, as found in lawyers, teachers, students and brain-workers generally.

Dr. C. H. Goodman, St. Louis, says: "Have used it for several years, with especially good results in nervous prostration, the result of mental efforts; also in sleepless conditions of brain-workers."

Since the opening of the Hospital, less than two years ago, nearly 4,000 patients have received treatment, without any discrimination as to race or creed. In the Dispensary the patients have been charged the bare cost of the medicines furnished, and of the more than 700 in-door patients, 90 per cent. received their board and treatment free.

The Hospital is neither sectional nor sectarian. We are catholic as well as denominational, and our work is general, as well as local. We have had patients from 16 States, representing 19 different religious denominations; and our Methodist patients have come from 16 Annual Conferences.

Six buildings are now in use, with a capacity of eighty beds. An abundance of air space and sunshine in all the public wards and private rooms. An able staff of Physicians and Surgeons, and a large corps of faithful and experienced nurses.

HOPE FOR THE AFFLICTED!

John S. Lampman

This cut is an accurate likeness of Dr. J. S. Lampman of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., whose name has become a household word, not only in the north-eastern part of his native state, but in the different states bordering on the old 'Keystone.' Dr. Lampman is one of the most successful Oculists in this part of the United States. His success in curing the many diseases and accidents that the human eye is heir to is phenomenal and almost incredible. Where the most eminent oculists of the country have failed, Dr. Lampman has succeeded. If it is possible for sight to be restored Dr. Lampman can surely do the work.

Dr. Lampman's residence and Infirmary are located on Washington street, in the pleasantest part of the city, close to churches, depots, and the post-office. Here he daily treats hundreds of patients, accommodating such as wish board with rooms in his own residence, at a rate for treatment, board, etc., very low. Send for circular.

HAPPINESS TO THE WORLD.

Dr. Lampman is proprietor of several remedies for the cure of different diseases. First, his CELEBRATED HAIR PRODUCER AND UNIVERSAL NEURALGIA CURE, two wonderful remedies in one. This compound is a sure and swift alleviator of neuralgic pains in the head. Second, LAMPMAN'S MAGIC KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE, a remedy unrivaled for the radical cure of every disease of the kidneys, or the liver. Third, LAMPMAN'S RHEUMATIC CURE, a safe and sure remedy.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

Mr. P. H. Martin, of Olyphant, Lackawanna county, who was nearly blind and who had been treated for a number of years by different institutions and physicians, many eminent in the profession, all of whom had pronounced him incurable, sends a lengthy testimonial of the wonderful cure effected in his case by Dr. Lampman. His letter is on file at the doctor's office, and can be seen at any time. Mr. Martin will cheerfully answer inquiries by addressing him with stamp.

I cheerfully recommend DR. LAMPMAN'S RHEUMATIC CURE. I was entirely helpless, and could only walk by the aid of crutches when I commenced taking his medicine. I had been previously treated by other doctors without benefit. I now consider myself cured.

Wilkes-Barre, 1889.

ADAM FISHER.

Having been seriously injured in one eye by a flying missile, I was recommended to Dr. Lampman by my physician, and after being treated by him for less than five months, sight was fully restored to the injured eye, and the other saved—which had been threatened. I now enjoy good eyesight, which I attribute to Dr. Lampman's skill.

I. C. FULLER, Wyalusing, Pa.

DR. LAMPMAN—I have used two bottles of your catarrh remedy and am almost well, after suffering for years. I think one more bottle will make a radical cure. I recommend it to any one who is suffering from catarrh.

Hundreds of testimonials of cures effected by Dr. Lampman's preparations may be seen at his office, 44 South Washington street. Also, sent by mail on application.

The following letter from N. B. White, Secretary of the Norwich (N. Y.) Young Men's Christian Association is an evidence of his ability in his line :

"I take pleasure in recommending Professor J. Franklin Crowell to all Association committees and others desiring a good, clean entertainment. Professor Crowell's programs include Zither solos, Liszt organ recitals, vocal solos ; also impersonations and recitations, in all of which he is first-class. - His zither selections are exceptionally fine. This truly wonderful instrument is made to produce delightfully sweet strains and perfect harmony under the masterly touch of Mr. Crowell. The Liszt organ so named from the great composer and pianist Franz Liszt, proves to be an instrument of varied resources under the skilled manipulation of Professor Crowell. It has the resources of a whole orchestra, and is wonderful in its scope and power. The vocal solos were pleasingly rendered and well received. The solo "Building for Eternity," was particularly fine, and upon the whole the entertainment was one of the best we have had this season."

CHURCH INSURANCE ASSOCIATION.

A Mutual Association, Chartered by the Legislature of the State of New York, for the Insurance of Churches, Parsonages, and their Contents within the State.

This association, which is under the exclusive management of prominent and able clergymen and business men, members of leading churches in Western and Central New York, affords protection to its policy holders equal to that given by any stock companies and at one-half the cost. The care and protection of church property, created as it is by the benevolence of the public, is a sacred trust; and no board of trustees should leave such property uninsured. The only reason for doing so has been the large expense of keeping it insured in old line companies. This is no longer necessary. The actual cost of protecting church property is not large; and the Church Insurance Association is prepared to demonstrate that fact to the most skeptical.
